Fine & Rare Wines & Spirits

Featuring Wine from the Private Cellar of Jeremy Seysses

Welcome to our first live sale of fall! Get those bids in quick because there's a treasure trove of fabulous wines here!

We kick off with an impeccable collection of Bordeaux classics and it only gets better from there. Think large format La Tâche, and stellar Burgundies from European collectors.

Speaking of European collectors, one in particular in this sale has come to market with some truly incredible verticals (lots 157 – 212). It's not every auction that boasts a timeline of Lafite bottles from 1945 to 2020! Not to mention, there's also Mouton back to 1900, La Mission Haut-Brion from 1929, and Yquem from 1896. Simply wow!

There are also fine wines from the estate of a true connoisseur (lots 213 – 354), with an array of excellent Bordeaux, Burgundy, Champagne, Piedmont, Tuscany, California and more, lovingly cultivated over a well-spent lifetime.

Additionally, we're thrilled to present Part VII of The Sakura Collection (lots 458 – 600), featuring more of the best of Bordeaux, Burgundy, and beyond, all in the same great condition that dedicated followers of this collection love!

Of course, we simply must mention that we have another special tranche of wines in support of The Roots Fund: a nonprofit organization created to empower minorities in the wine and spirits industry by providing resources and financial support. Starting at lot 777, this section even features lots from the private cellars of Jeremy Seysses!

I also cannot ignore the bespoke section of spirits we have to close out the sale, complete with 80-year-old Glenlivet, Prohibition Bourbon, regal Rémy Martin Louis XIII, and other top-shelf drams.

This is only Day 1 of an amazing two-day auction live at Fifty Three in New York City. Day 2 is all LEGENDS: The Private Cellar of A.A.G., which is truly one of the greatest collections to ever grace the auction rostrum. Do not miss it

I look forward to seeing you all there in the room and raising our glasses together. You can email aopromolla@zachys.com to RSVP and you can reach out to bid@zachys.com for any bidding assistance or inquiries.

Cheers,

Charles Antin

A Tycoon's Treasure Chest

LOTS 1-110

This impeccable collection of Bordeaux classics, with a dash of cult Californian wines for good measure, comes from a west coast tycoon who only drinks the best. One needs only a brief look at “fallen soldiers” in cellar to know this is a savvy collector who means business!

The wines in this offering were sourced via Harper’s Club, mostly in Europe and imported directly. The bottles were removed from our collector’s purpose-built home cellar, complete with a backup generator, as a bit of cellar pruning. The condition of these wines is a testament to how fastidiously they’ve been cared for in this treasure chest of a cellar: high fills across the board!

Zachys encourages you to bid with the utmost confidence here.

Château Lafite Rothschild

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The Château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

Château Mouton Rothschild

While Mouton was always a highly regarded wine, a big change came when in 1922, when the twenty-one-year-old Baron Philippe decided to run the Château full-time. An innovator from the start of his tenure, in 1924 he decided that in order to guarantee quality the entire production would be bottled at the Château, and from 1934 he numbered each bottle released. Also, of course, he started the tradition of works of art on Mouton labels, featuring the famous Carlu ram's head from 1924 to 1926, and since a hiatus from then until 1945, each label has either been designed by a major artist or featured a tribute to a significant event in the Château's history.

Perhaps his most significant achievement was persuading the French Minister for Agriculture, Jacques Chirac, that Mouton was and had always been a First Growth that had been wrongly classified. So, in 1973, for the first and only time, a revised edition of the 1855 classification was released with Mouton finally ranked, next to its Pauillac neighbors Lafite and Latour, as a First Growth.

Scarecrow

The heart and soul of the Scarecrow cuvee dates back to the late nineteenth century. Born in 1895, J.J. Cohn rose from poverty in Harlem, New York to become the Chief of Production of MGM Studios in California. Cohn purchased a 180-acre estate in Rutherford in the Napa Valley as a retreat for his family. His estate bordered that of the legendary winemaker of Inglenook, Gustave Niebaum. In 1945, Niebaum convinced Cohn to plant eighty acres of Cabernet Sauvignon that he promised to purchase. This would become the base for the distinguished Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignons of the post-war era. It is important to note that these "Old Vines" that are now the hallmark of Scarecrow are still on their original rootstock planted in 1945, unlike most of the grafted rootstock found in Napa that was struck by phylloxera - possibly paying tribute to J.J. Cohn himself who lived to be 100 years old. Paying homage to his grandfather who during his time at MGM was instrumental in the making of film classics such as The Wizard of Oz, Bret Lopez honors J.J. Cohn with the wine that is Scarecrow.

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

François Raveneau

Whichever way you look at these wines they stand up, be it vintage consistency, longevity, intensity of flavor, length and so on- they are just flat out incredible wines and there is nothing else quite like them anywhere. Raveneau's Chablis is now more than ever getting the recognition it deserves and the prices have risen accordingly, but they still represent great values compared to the other top white wines of Burgundy. The only downside is the minute quantities they are typically available in.

History, Vineyards & Winemaking

Domaine Raveneau, today totaling around ten hectares in size, was formed by François Raveneau from small plots passed down from his father and Father-in-law, along with a little land he purchased himself. Today the estate is run by his two sons, Jean-Marie and Bernard, with Jean-Marie taking care of the winemaking duties.

Their cellars, as one might expect from a domaine of such modest acreage, are small and are discreetly located in the village. This is no hi-tech new world winery, but an old-school artisan setup. Dark, cool, and damp with a fine vaulted architectural ceiling, they set the scene appropriately. The secret to these wines is immense care in the vineyards. If ever the term hand-crafted could be applied to wine, it can be here. The wines spend approximately twelve months in barrel, but to retain the benchmark acidity and steeliness the barrels are usually seven to nine years in age, although some percentage of new oak is used. There is a light fining prior to bottling by hand and then the application of the trademark yellow wax capsules.

Domaine Raveneau's vineyard holdings include: Les Clos, Blanchot, Valmur, Bougrots, Montée de Tonnerre, Butteaux, Vaillons, Chapelot, Montmains and Forest. Raveneau's wines are utterly unique, of unquestionable quality and can age as well as a Ramonet or DRC Montrachet. Even for those who don't typically drink white wine, Raveneau's epiphanous Chablis does not disappoint.

Sine Qua Non

The ultimate garage wine from southern California emanates from a rusty warehouse that appears to be on the wrong side of the railroad tracks running through Ventura. The winery's name is Sine Qua Non (literally translated from Latin means "without which one cannot"), and as the proprietors (the husband and wife team of Elaine and Manfred Krankl) indicate on the label of their sumptuous 1997 Syrah called Imposter McCoy, "the truth is inside"...

Stunning Verticals

& More from a European Collector

LOTS 157-212

This collection of rare wines was put together by the most fastidious of collectors. He has been a collector of rare wines, especially older wines, for decades and takes delight in sourcing rare and old bottles—not only the joy of putting together a beautiful vertical, but also of drinking mature wines!

The highlights of this offering are of course the Lafite and Mouton verticals. However, the Champagne, mature Vega Sicilia, and other wines are very much worth a close inspection. For any questions on these rare wines please ask for photos at auction@zachys.com.

ITALY

Poderi Aldo Conterno

In the nineteenth century, the forefathers of Aldo Conterno emigrated to Argentina, but on account of various family vicissitudes they returned to Italy after a few years. It was then that Giovanni Conterno brought his family back to the small winemaking farm of his father Giuseppe in Monforte d'Alba and started helping him in the production of local wine. In response to market demand, the Conternos then felt the need to create a superior Barolo, to be produced exclusively from the best vintages, with a long vinification period and capable of lasting over time; thus, in the 1920s the first Barolo reserve was bottled.

Aldo Conterno's cru vineyards (Romirasco, Cicala and Colonnello) located in Bussia of Monforte d'Alba, portray the real expression of Langa terroir. The wine of this cru gives itself with firm determination by playing on the most classical elements of Nebbiolo vine and its spicy notes give a crystal idea of the uniqueness of this soil.

SPAIN

Vega Sicilia

Vega Sicilia, often called “the Lafite of Spain” for its elegance, is among the oldest extant wineries in Spain and remains among its most celebrated. Toribio Lecanda purchased 2,000 acres of farmland from the Marquis de Valbuena in 1848, but it was not until 1864 that his son, Eloy, began to convert it to viticulture by planting Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Pinot Noir. Originally, he made brandy, and even before it was a winery Vega Sicilia was appointed to be the brandy supplier to the royal family of Spain. Vega Sicilia Único (“unique”) and Valbuena both date from 1915, when the vineyards had recovered sufficiently from phylloxera to permit great wine to be made. Único, made only in outstanding years, is typically mostly Tempranillo, with the balance Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Merlot. It spends at least seven years in barrel, and at least three in bottle, before release, and in some vintages, it is aged for astonishingly long periods before it reaches the market. The 1970, for example, was not released until 1995, and magnums did not follow until 2000!

The wine lives up to its designation as “unique.” It is intensely fragrant, complex on the palate but also extremely concentrated, with very high acidity to balance the richness. Occasionally, the winery will release a small quantity of wine designated “Reserva Especial,” a blend of two or three Únicos; these bottlings are generally considered to be of the same high quality as the single vintage releases.

The Estate of a
Fine Wine Connoisseur

LOTS 213-354

From a longtime friend of Zachys comes this phenomenal collection of rare wines, collected over the course of decades. The wines were removed from custom home storage, maintaining perfect temperature and humidity for long term storage. When Zachys specialists packed this cellar there was nary a single bottle that was rejected for sale—a testament to not only this collector's sourcing, but his fastidious approach to storage. Many of the wines here were bought on or close to release from retailers.

Bid with utmost confidence. This cellar comes from a gentleman who not only collected but enjoyed his wines—every bottle in this offering was purchased to be consumed and stored with future enjoyment in mind.

Château Haut-Brion

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

Château d'Yquem

Château d'Yquem is the apex qualitatively and the centre geographically of the Sauternes area. Each major property occupies its own little hill. Yquem's is the highest. It is also the largest estate, the most perfectionistic, the most consistent. Unlike the rest of the region there was no cutting of corners, no lack of investment, no dip in quality in the sad days of the 1960s and 1970s.

At Yquem we have Sauternes winemaking at its most perfectionistic. The vines are pruned to yield nine hl/ha – one glass per vine (as opposed to a full bottle in a classified growth red wine château). Collection of the grapes is berry by botrytised berry, rather than by bunch or half-bunch elsewhere. The grapes are crushed in a small horizontal hydraulic press in three stages. Unlike in Champagne, for example, the first pressing does not necessarily give the best wine. There is no débourage before the wine is put into cask. Fermentation and ageing is in new oak, of course, the latter taking place in a splendid underground cellar, constructed in 1987. The assemblage is late and the wine is not bottled for three years or more. Only then is it put on the market...

There is something very special, and indeed very consistent, about Yquem. The wine is more oaky than most in its youth. It is by quite some way the richest, most concentrated, most intense wine of its kind. In great years – I have a marginal preference for 1989 over 1990 and 1988 – it is nectar: the liquid quintessence of concentrated sunbeams, to quote Thomas Love Peacock.

Domaine Leroy

Domaine Leroy boasts wines with the same energy and intensity as the woman behind them: Lalou Bize-Leroy. By 1955, when Lalou was still in her early 20s, she was running her family's historied negociant company, Maison Leroy. By 1974, she became co-director of Domaine de la Romanée -Conti, and, less than 20 years later, she was ousted by the board of DRC, in part for establishing such a successful competitor in Domaine Leroy (although she still has a quarter stake in DRC).

In 1988, finding it increasingly difficult to acquire wine from growers that met the exacting standards of Maison Leroy, Lalou purchased Domaine Charles Nöellat in Vosne-Romanée, renamed it Domaine Leroy, and proceeded to pioneer biodynamic viticulture at what would become one of most legendary domaines in Burgundy. Domaine Leroy has practiced biodynamic viticulture from day one – well before it became trendy - and has even stuck to its astrological guns through such hurdles as the mildew-riddled 1993 vintage. After all, according to Lalou, "wine is inspired from the cosmos, it tastes of the world itself."

At Domaine Leroy, Lalou insists that "there is no winemaking and no winemaker," just grapes that guide their stewards. To coax the utmost quality possible from her berries, Lalou never replants her vines, allowing them to mature; she eschews vine hedging (cutting back shoots after the flowering stage); and practices severe pruning and crop-thinning in the vineyard. Domaine Leroy's old vines, combined with unique vine training and strict pruning techniques, lead to ridiculously low yields and intensely concentrated flavor in the final product.

If you ask Lalou her secret to producing such iconic wines, she'll tell you "It is simple, I love my vines more deeply than most people." Given the wines these vines produce, we don't blame her.

Krug

Of all the wine world's luxury brands, Krug is perhaps the most glittering. No expense is spared in its production, though the techniques used are in fact remarkably artisanal, including fermentation in small, old wooden casks. Time is of the essence: the overall ageing cycle is the best part of a decade here, with all wines being aged for at least six years sur pointes (upended, after the "ordinary" ageing period that follows the second fermentation is concluded). No expense is spared, either, in the pricing of its five wines, the cheapest of which, Grande Cuvée, costs as much as many rival houses' top cuvees. This is a wine of magnificent complexity and layered richness, nourishing and diverting, as detailed and textured as a Gobelin tapestry. It contains wines from a decade's worth of vintages and from at least twenty different crus (not all of them Grand or even Premier, one might note); Krug makes no secret, too, of its need and love for Pinot Meunier. (The Krug 1928 vintage, regarded by the family as the greatest ever, contained twenty percent Meunier, and there is eighteen percent in the finely honed 1988.) There is also a relatively understated rose of pale tawny hue, and a series of vintage wines of magnificent stylistic oscillation, fully respecting the potential of each year. The Collection vintage wines have spent more years in the Krug cellars in Reims; disgorgement took place at the same time as for "ordinary" vintage wines. Finally, a champagne de terroir: the pure Chardonnay Clos du Mesnil, vinified from wines in a genuine 1.9 hectares walled vineyard within the village of Le Mesnil, purchased by Krug in 1971, and released as a vintage wine beginning with 1979. In great years (like 1988) it is magnificent and multi-dimensional.

Dom Pérignon

Dom Pérignon - the name alone makes most of us break out in a delightful smile. When we think of this 17th-century monk from Hautvillers - so often pointed out as the father of Champagne – we either regard him with historical reverence, or associate his name with the proudest of all wine labels and everything else that follows in its glamorous, sparkling wake...

Back in 1936, Moët & Chandon's marketing director Robert- Jean de Vogüé could not possibly have imagined what he had done when he dreamed up the idea of the world's first prestige champagne – a champagne with a sky-high price that was supposed to be even better than the vintage wine, along with a spectacular look that won respect and prompted extravagant enjoyment...

The style itself is ultra-sophisticated, with an amazingly silky softness combined with toasted fireworks, backed up by an exotic fruitiness in a medium body. When Dom Pérignon is at its best I find notes of forest morelles, cream, peach and an overabundance of roasted coffee beans and nuttiness. Dom Pérignon Rosé is an even more exquisite and rare product that has been molded in a similar form, though its full-bodied shape leans more to strawberry or orange, where the whiter somewhat lighter variety becomes exotic and toasted. Dom Pérignon Oenothèque is the latest child in this distinguished family. At Richard Geoffroy's initiative they now release a restricted number of old, well-preserved bottles from Moët's own cellar in different stages of maturity. The wine can be newly disgorged, but it isn't a fixed thing. What is guaranteed, however, is that the wines are in the best possible condition, and that they most likely will act a little more youthfully than the bottles that have been out on the market for a while. This treasure is now decorated with a luxurious black label in unmistakable style.

And speaking of style...In an age when PR people constantly want to minimize labels and change both bottle design and packaging, Dom Pérignon stands there like a Sophia Loren of the champagne world, unchanged and as timelessly sexy. The balance conveyed in the subtly curvaceous shape of the bottle, paired with an olive green label in the shape of a coat of arms adorned with cursive writing, is still as magical as ever. Since 1970 the wine itself is made exclusively in steel tanks and the grapes are mainly Pinot Noir from Aÿ, Bouzy, Verzenay and Hautvillers, as well as Chardonnay in approximately equal amounts from Cramant and Mesnil.

Champagne

"In sum, the 2000 presents a striking interplay of the maturity that develops over extended time on lees and freshness. The creamy, seamless finish only adds to the wine's considerable immediacy and sheer appeal...What a gorgeous wine this is...96." AG 7/17.

Gaja

In the mid-nineteenth century the Gaja family began producing wine in Piedmont. Giovanni Gaja established the winery and Angelo, the fourth generation, joined the family firm in 1961. Angelo Gaja, born in 1940 and the present director of the family firm, has a degree in enology from Alba as well as a masters in economics. In 1974 he went to California, where he presumably fell under the spell of the barrique. Gaja has achieved unequivocal success aging his Barbarescos in small, new oak barrels, where the wine takes on a certain subtlety and suppleness without losing the personality of the Nebbiolo grape.

Gaja is the largest private owner of vineyards in the Barbaresco zone, with 153 acres of vines in Barbaresco, Treiso, and Alba. They own fourteen different vineyards in Barbaresco and Treiso that make up their Barbaresco normale. Besides this regular Barbaresco, Gaja bottles three individual crus. Of the three, Costa Russi matures the soonest. It is the most open, with a sweeter taste and more intense aroma. Sori Tildin is more closed and concentrated; it is firm in texture and holds more in reserve. Sori San Lorenzo is the hardest of all in its youth, requiring age to show its real quality. It is the slowest maturing of the crus as well as the longest lived.

Château Léoville Las Cases

The château gets its name from the Marquis de Las-Cases Beauvoice who, upon the dividing up of the vast Léoville estate, ended with the largest portion. Hugh Barton bought a quarter, Baron Poyferré (a relative) ended up with another quarter, and the remaining half went to the Marquis.

As debt accumulated during the earlier part of the twentieth century, the estate was gradually acquired by its then manager, Theophile Skavinski. Jean-Hubert Delon, the estate's present owner, is one of his descendants.

The Wine

Although there are nearly 100 hectares under vine here, it is the fifty-three hectares of Grand Clos with that famous wall and arched entrance that is the primary source of fruit for the grand vin. The vines are planted to seventy percent Cabernet Sauvignon, seventeen percent Merlot and thirteen percent Cabernet Franc. Ageing is in sixty-five percent new oak barriques for fifteen to eighteen months, which just goes to show you don't need three and a half years in 100 percent new oak to make great wine. The second wine, Clos du Marquis, was one of Bordeaux' first when the 1902 vintage debuted.

These are serious wines, as good as any in the Médoc and in many years outperforming its second growth status. This estate could be called "the Latour of St Julien," which is actually not very far from the truth as it does reside right next door to the First Growth!

Domaine Ponsot

Domaine Ponsot in Morey St Denis has long been one of the most important domaines in the Côte d'Or. It began rather meagerly with just a hectare of vines in the 1920s (according to Remington Norman, though I have seen figures of an initial three hectares elsewhere), but had grown to the six hectares by the last 1940s, when Jean-Marie Ponsot began to work with his father, Hippolyte Ponsot. Jean-Marie succeeded to full control of the domaine in 1957, and his son, Laurent, (the current head of the family domaine) made his first vintage in 1983. Today the domaine is just short of nine hectares, with more than a third of it in Clos de la Roche, of which the Ponsots are the largest landholders. In addition to the family's own vines, the Ponsots had over the years entered into a number of different metayage (sharecropping) agreements, which brought vines under their control in crus such as Latricières- Chambertin, Griottes-Chambertin, Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny Les Charmes, as well as a bit more Clos de la Roche and Clos St Denis to augment their own holdings.

For years the domaine's wines were reputed to be very inconsistent from vintage to vintage, with their successes amongst the very greatest wines of any given vintage, but the less successful vintages relative failures. Much of this has been attributed to the propensity of both Jean-Marie and Laurent Ponsot to harvest very late, shooting for maximum ripeness to add a powerful dimension to their wines. When this methodology worked, as in vintages such as 1980, 1985, 1989, 1990 or 1991, the Ponsot wines were monumental blockbusters, thick with lush, creamy old vine fruit, strongly marked by their respective terroirs and very complex. In the "homerun" vintages, Ponsot wines are rich, bordering on syrupy (as they have such voluptuous fruit), but with excellent structural elements and fine focuses as well.

The Sakura Collection

Part VII

LOTS 458-600

This is the 7th Sakura season for us at Zachys! After taking a short break, we are very honoured to present another instalment of this popular consignment – The Sakura Collection!

Sakura, the Japanese word for cherry blossom is a natural metaphor for the ephemeral quality of the Sakura Collection – exquisitely beautiful, but also delicate and all too brief. Our collector has a deep passion for the finest things in life, whether that is the arts, food or wine. He began building his wine collection many years ago and has since created one of the best cellars in the world. He did this by being hands on in his collecting habits, meticulous and exacting when it came to the sourcing and conditions of any wines entering his cellars. Zachys was delighted to take part in this journey; many of the wines in his collection were purchased from Zachys retail and auctions. What that means is that the team at Zachys, from New York to Hong Kong, has had the pleasure of enjoying many bottles from this cellar, and every bottle was exquisite.

As with the previous offerings, Part VII is nothing short of amazing. In these upcoming lots, we start with the best of Bordeaux bringing together the first growths from all of the best vintages such as Haut-Brion 1989, Lafite 1982, and Petrus 2005. The journey through Burgundy features all the top names such as DRC, Domaine Leroy, Armand Rousseau, Mugnier, and Coche-Dury.

Like a cherry blossom, these short lots will appear, the gavel will fall, and then they'll be gone. So be sure to spend some time with this catalog, we promise you will be rewarded.

Petrus

Petrus today is a little over eleven hectares, including five hectares purchased in 1969 from neighboring Château Gazin. The vineyards have clay topsoil and gravelly subsoil, allowing good initial water retention but excellent longer term drainage. The vines are old, around forty to fifty years, planted with ninety percent Merlot and five percent Cabernet Franc. To increase concentration the vines are pruned extensively and a green harvest is performed. At harvest time, nearly two hundred workers pick the grapes at their peak of balance and ripeness. Sometimes up to four passes are needed but if pressed, as in 1982, the entire harvest can be completed in just one day.

The grapes are partially destemmed and after a fairly lengthy maceration period, sometimes almost a month, the wine spends twenty months in new oak before being fined (but not filtered) and bottled. Petrus is a classic example of careful vineyard management and winemaking yet the result leaves evidence of something even greater. These methods combine with exquisite terroir for Merlot to create something that is, in good vintages, not only earth-shatteringly tasty, but distinctive, lending the name Petrus majesty because of its quality but also its inimitability.

BURGUNDY

Armand Rousseau

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets...impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

JF Mugnier

For such an important domaine, which in addition to its 1.37 hectares of vines in Musigny proper, also possesses significant holdings in Bonnes-Mares, Chambolle-Musigny Premiers Crus Les Amoureuses and Les Fuées, as well as a monopole on the fine Nuits St Georges Premier Cru of the Clos de la Maréchale...Jacques-Frédéric's great-great-grandfather, Frédéric Mugnier, had been a merchant of spirits in Dijon in the middle of the nineteenth century, and as his business in Dijon prospered, he was able to buy his parcels of vines in Chambolle-Musigny and Nuits St Georges during the nadir in fortunes of the area brought about by the phylloxera epidemic.

The Mugniers added to their vineyard holdings in the area when they bought the Château de Chambolle-Musigny in 1889 (also from the Marey- Monge family), though the house was used primarily as an occasional retreat from the city for the family for many, many years to come, with no one from the Mugnier family settling down in Chambolle until today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier returned to Chambolle from overseas in 1984. As he relates, "my family were people from the city" so it is not surprising that "I am the first one to live permanently in this house." During the 1920s, the family business was run by five grandsons of Frédéric Mugnier (who had passed away in 1911), with James Mugnier officially in charge of the wine side of the business and the vineyards. Of these five grandsons, only one, Jacques Mugnier, ever married and had children, and it is from this grandson of Frédéric Mugnier that today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier is related. Making wines of purity and grace, JF Mugnier is surely one of the most sought after producers in all of Burgundy.

Jean-François Coche-Dury

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Mayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Mayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation contrôlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose an example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

Domaine d'Auvenay

Domaine d'Auvenay is the personal domaine of Lalou Bize-Leroy. When we think of Domaine Leroy, we think of tiny quantities of some of Burgundy's greatest wines. At Domaine d'Auvenay the quantities are microscopic, the quality just as high. The estate's entire holdings are around just four hectares. Even by top end Burgundy standards it is tiny. However since she first established the Domaine in 1989 it has gone on to become the stuff of legend among Burgundy collectors and connoisseurs the world over.

These are ultra-rare and the best of the best, no serious cellar is complete without them.

One will notice that many perfectly stored bottles from Domaine d'Auvenay will have assessment notes of signs of seepage. This is due to the fact they are overfilled at the domaine and are not an indication of poor storage conditions.

Domaine Leflaive

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Folatières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

Screaming Eagle

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

RARE WINES FROM A BURGUNDY CONNOISSEUR
(LOTS 629-652)

From the collection of a true Burgundy connoisseur and longtime friend of Zachys comes this unique collection of fine and mature bottles. This collector, based in Manhattan, has been traveling to the region for years and counts many winemakers as friends. Indeed, the bottles in this collection were purchased with the intent to drink, which is why he has always been fastidious about storage. Now, due to a move out of his home, he has decided to downsize. Take advantage of this great cellar.

FINE WINE FROM A WESTCHESTER COLLECTOR

From a longtime collector not 15 minutes from Zachys warehouse comes this gorgeous collection of mature wine, and a corresponding online offering in this month's net sale.

Collected over decades, the wines in this offering were collected by a true wine lover intending to drink. Hence the excellent condition of the collection. Bid with absolute confidence—the wines were removed from temperature-controlled wine storage for the first time in decades.

Domaine Dujac

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

Opus One

Opus One was founded in the 1970s as a joint venture between Robert Mondavi and Baron Philippe de Rothschild (of Château Mouton Rothschild). A blend of two wine-making cultures as well as two of the most influential figures in the wine world, Opus One is modeled after a Bordeaux château but set in Napa Valley. Its inaugural vintage was produced at the Robert Mondavi Winery in 1979 and was unveiled alongside the 1980 vintage as the winery's first release. With this initial offering to the market in 1984, Opus One established itself as America's first ultra-premium wine and created a new category of American wine priced $50 and above per bottle. In the 1980s and 1990s Opus One went on to become one of the elite producers of Cabernet – while the label does not identify a varietal, the wine is mostly Cabernet Sauvignon with some Cabernet Franc. Since its founding, Opus has added vineyard land in Oakville and now owns nearly 140 acres of vines, including some in the prized To-Kalon vineyard. Notable not only for its pedigreed lineage, Opus is also recognized for its monumental winery that some consider a tribute to its founders. Today Opus One is overseen by Baroness Philippine de Rothschild and produces approximately 25,000 cases a year.

TREASURES FROM A LEGEND (LOTS 717-730)

Even before Jacky Truchot decided to stop making wine, his wines were highly sought after by Burgundy aficionados. Same for our consignors. So much so that he managed to get allocations direct from the legend himself. Yes, that's right. All the bottles in this consignment were purchased directly from the domaine of Jacky Truchot and kept in a temperature and humidity-controlled, private cellar ever since. Consider this a rare opportunity to acquire Truchot bottles that only had one previous owner. Bid with confidence!

BURGUNDY

Jacky Truchot

Classic Burgundy, the term that embodies wines that were created underneath Jacky Truchot; fragrant, pure, and elegant are the words that describe his masterfully vinified product. Truchot's style was textbook, no filtration, minuscule amounts of new oak, 100% destemmed, absolutely no cold soaking, and as high of a yield as the AOC allows. Jacky Truchot closed a chapter of Burgundy history in 2005, setting off a scramble for collectors who appreciate the clean style of classic Burgundy.

BORDEAUX

Château L'Eglise Clinet

Château L'Eglise Clinet has a long history. It dates all the way back to the back to the late 1800s. Clos L'Eglise-Clinet was created in 1882. This happened when two families agreed to join together and form a partnership to produce Bordeaux wine together. The families were Mauleon Rouchut of Clos l'Eglise. And the Constant family, the owners of Château Clinet. From that point forward, until the mid-1950s, their Bordeaux wine was sold under the name Clos L'Eglise-Clinet.

After that date, the wines were released just as they are today, under the current name of, Château L'Eglise Clinet. Before Denis Durantou, the current owner and wine maker took over, his great-grandfather managed the property. The elder Durantou spent all his time as a shopkeeper. He did not live at the chateau. He preferred to spend his time on his dairy farm, located in Coutras.

Denis Durantou took over the winery in the mid-1980s. The property, slowly but surely keeps getting better and better. Today, it is one of the stars of Pomerol! The wine is concentrated, full-bodied, opulent and rich. Everything is in harmony. This special Bordeaux wine offers a purity of fruit, exotic spice components and freshness. The portion of old vine Cabernet Franc, which is close to 70 years of age is part of what makes this wine unique. Those vines are a large component of what separates the style and aromatic complexity of L'Eglise Clinet from the most of the other top Pomerol wines.

Guigal

Marcel Guigal - perfectionist, fanatical, pernickety – is the super-star of the appellation and probably sells more Côte-Rôtie under his own label than all the other growers combined. Despite this size, however, the quality is exemplary - as they should be at the prices he charges! He harvests late, insists on very low yields, and keeps the wines in a combination of barrel and small foudres and demi-muids, all newish wood, for up to three and a half years before bottling. Their wines are so concentrated they can withstand this wait without drying out, and remain profound, rich and individual. La Landonne is the Brune, La Mouline the Blonde, La Turque the sort of hermaphroditic mixture. Usually my favourite is the Landonne. The Château d'Ampuis bottling combines elements of both the sectors of Côte-Rôtie, from vines in the climats of La Pommier, Le Pavillon, La Garde and Le Clos.

Abreu

David Abreu could be considered the man with the Midas Touch. He is the vineyard manager to the stars of Napa Valley with clients such as Harlan, Bryant and Grace Family in his portfolio. Besides his work with outside wineries, Abreu vinifies four of his own wines with Assisant Winemaker Brad Grimes from sites considered the grands crus of Napa: Madrona Ranch, Thorevilos, Capella and a Howell Mountain cuvee simply labeled Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon. This varietal is the base of all four blends with additions of Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot with the production of each cuvee about 200-250 cases.

Year in and year out the wines, especially Madrona Ranch and Thorevilos, garner perfect or near perfect scores from all of the major wine critics. The wines have an intensity and structure which enable them to be enjoyed now but show that they will endure for those with patience to cellar their bottles. Other than auction, the only way to acquire the wine is from a sold-out mailing list.

SPIRITS FROM THE ESTATE OF A FINE WINE
CONNOISSEUR (LOTS 995-1000)

From a longtime friend of Zachys comes this phenomenal collection of rare spirits, collected over the course of decades alongside a prodigious wine cellar. These bottles were removed from custom home storage, maintaining perfect temperature and humidity for long term storage. When Zachys specialists packed this cellar there was nary a single bottle that was rejected for sale—a testament to not only this collector’s sourcing, but his fastidious approach to storage.

PROHIBITION BOURBON (LOTS 1002 & 1003)

Here’s an opportunity to acquire American history in a bottle. Distilled in 1917, this bourbon was still maturing in barrel when Prohibition came down, making alcohol production and consumption illegal in all 48 states. At the time, there were over 400 distilleries in the US and many of these businesses shuttered in the face of Prohibition. However, in 1920, two brothers founded the American Medicinal Spirits Company to fill the needs of the legal liquor market. A loophole in the Volstead Act – which provided an outline for the enforcement of the 18th Amendment – allowed for heavily regulated and very expensive prescriptions for alcohol. This loophole allowed A.M.S. Co. to thrive in the early years of Prohibition. In 1929, the company was sold to National Distillers and would become just one of six distilling companies to survive until the repeal of Prohibition in 1933. You’ll note, however, that these bottles were bottled in 1932. This was the year that Franklin D. Roosevelt ran for President on a platform that included repeal of Prohibition. Following his victory at the polls in November 1932, Repeal was all but certain. These bottles were initially created as gifts for the shareholders of National Distillers, a special bottling to celebrate the journey of the company through the difficulties of the previous 15 years, bottled legally and under bonded, government supervision in the twilight of Prohibition and looking ahead to the dawn of the era of Repeal.

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (ii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iii) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 25% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot and is subject to change.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.5803.8244 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. Zachys requires a valid credit card for new registrants.

Prospective Buyers may be asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please prearrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971.

All bidders who wish to attend the auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at zachys.com. Complete and either email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com or fax the form to +1.914.713.8220 or +852.2530.1971 at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bids provided to Zachys prior to the first session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. All bids are final and will not be cancelled.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity, and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will attempt to move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

For live auctions, a maximum bid may be entered online. You must confirm the bid to submit it. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is entered that does not match a bidding increment, a message will be displayed to provide the increments that are closest to the bid entered. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at <https://auction.zachys.com/>. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above 16,000 HKD or 2,000 USD and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Timed Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of a timed auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. You must confirm the id to submit it. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is entered that does not match a bidding increment, a message will be displayed to provide the increments that are closest to the bid entered. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location. Because title passes from Zachys to Buyer in the state of New York (see Passage of Title and Storage), all sales are subject to New York sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the Buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the Buyer.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale.

All questions regarding tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034 or +852.2530.1971.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 25% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

Payment for all invoices is due immediately upon receipt.

For timed auction ("zCollections") purchases: Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for the full invoice amount within 48 hours of the sale close.

For live auction purchases: Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file within 48 hours of the sale close.

In respect of all other purchases, buyers are expected to pay for purchases or balances within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for internet sales. At the end of this 14 or 7 calendar-day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due.

Zachys reserves the right to cancel the sale of invoices still unpaid on the 31st day after an auction.

For US auctions, payment is accepted in United States Dollars.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in Hong Kong Dollars.

To request payment in another currency, contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate.

Payment can be made by credit card or bank wire transfer. In the event of third-party payments, Zachys may require an Authorization Letter from both parties.

Payment by Credit Card

All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Union Pay. Payment can be made via phone by calling +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971.

Payments made by credit card will incur a 2% processing fee.

When making payment via UnionPay, winning bidder must sign the auction invoice and acknowledge that possession of the wine has transferred from Zachys at time of payment. Signature must be same as the one signed on payslip.

When paying by wire transfer, please be sure to reference the invoice number in the details field.

Collection of Purchases

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Prospective Buyers' attention is drawn to the Conditions of Sale, including Condition 9.

Collection & Delivery

It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Unless Buyer is located in the state of New York, Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products to buyer. For Buyers located outside of the state of New York, Zachys will deliver all alcoholic beverages purchased to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer (see Passage of Title and Storage).

After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyer's expense, direction and request.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Auction Results

To obtain results for the auction, please refer to www.auction.zachys.com.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. Under no circumstances will substitutes be provided by Zachys; including but not limited to in case of breakage or error in catalog description. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

2 The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 25% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

3 Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

4 Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

5 In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

6 Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7 All alcoholic beverages purchased from Zachys are sold in the state of New York, and title passes to the buyer in the state of New York in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code. All sales are subject to NY sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the purchaser. If the Purchaser is a resident of a state other than New York, all alcoholic beverage purchases will be delivered to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer, who may arrange with the facility to pick up the inventory in person or arrange for delivery under the law of the purchaser's state or the ultimate destination of the goods.

8a Title to the offered lot, passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information. Title passes to Buyer in the state of New York, where the sale takes place.

8b The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

9 No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and on the seventh calendar day following the internet sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 90 calendar days after the date of sale. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 90 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

10 Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

12

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale, or to cancel the sale of any lot unpaid 31 calendar days after sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property or 90 days after the sale, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

For auctions that are held in New York, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

17

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

18

New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured, and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

22

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

23

Title and Risk of Loss. For New York residents, title and risk of loss to all goods shall pass to you upon our transfer of the products to the applicable carrier, or upon delivery to you if Zachys is acting as the carrier. For non-New York residents, title and risk of loss to all goods shall pass to you upon our delivery of the products to the independent storage facility, upon your receipt of the products from the Zachys premises, or upon transfer to an applicable carrier or third party in accordance with any alternative shipping/storage methods you decide. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Zachys reserves the right, exercisable in its sole discretion, to refund or replace goods damaged during shipment in accordance with Section II(b) of these Terms.

24

Tax. Sales tax will be applied to all Orders as applicable. Seller makes no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to deliver or import any wines, alcoholic beverages or other goods into any state. Because title passes from Zachys to Buyer in the state of New York (see Passage of Title and Storage; Title and Risk of Loss), all sales are subject to New York sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the Buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the Buyer.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

Collection, Delivery & Storage of Wine

Wines should be collected within 90 days after the auction at which they were purchased, after which time they will be automatically transferred to a storage account and incur storage fees.

For US Auctions

Passage of Title

All alcoholic beverages purchased from Zachys are sold in the state of New York, and title passes to the buyer in the state of New York in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code. All sales are subject to NY sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the purchaser. If the Purchaser is a resident of a state other than New York, all alcoholic beverage purchases will be delivered to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer, who may arrange with the facility to pick up the inventory in person or arrange for delivery under the law of the purchaser's state or the ultimate destination of the goods.

Storage

Wine purchased at auction is stored at New York Fine Wine Storage (NYFWS) located in Port Chester, New York. The 55,000 square foot warehouse is equipped with a state-of-the-art alarm system that is monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A refrigeration system provides an ideal temperature, and all wines are protected with a temperature alarm system, as well as a backup generator. Rates are competitive, and the merchandise will not have to be moved to another location.

For further information or directions, please call NYFWS at 914.874.8068.

Pickup

Wines can be picked up from Zachys Port Chester facility between the hours of 9 AM and 5 PM Monday through Friday, provided that payment for the lots has been received. Buyers can arrange to collect their wine by appointment by phoning Zachys at 914.448.3026. Please provide at least 72 hours notice before coming to collect your purchases. Any additional packaging and/or handling that is required or requested will be subject to processing fees.

Delivery

Purchases will not automatically be shipped. Once payment has been received, arrangements can be made to deliver the wines to the Buyer to the primary shipping address on the account. For further information or collection and delivery assistance, please call 914.448.3026 or email auction@zachys.com.

Original wooden cases and original cartons, when available, will be shipped automatically, unless instructed otherwise. Please inquire for rates of shipping original packaging when making arrangements.

Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments and pickups will be subject to a 1% Shipping Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance with respect to purchased property packed, shipped and delivered pursuant to arrangements made by Zachys. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival.

To insure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge.

Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, as to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverages into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the wine shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the wine to be shipped prior to the purchase of wines at auction. The protection afforded by the Shipping Protection Fee does not cover confiscation by any government or law enforcement agency as a result of alleged violations of applicable laws by Sellers or Buyers.

Zachys will take precaution to ensure the safety of wines against inclement weather conditions. This may include delaying shipments during times of extreme high or low temperatures.

Common shipping arrangements include Common Carrier, Consolidated Shipments and Dedicated Shipments.

Dedicated Shipments

Domestic Private Carrier in temperature-controlled Truck

For Hong Kong Auctions

Storage

Wine purchased at HK auctions is stored at our wine warehouse in Hong Kong. The warehouse is equipped with a state-of-the-art alarm system that is monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The refrigeration system provides an ideal temperature, and all wines are protected with a temperature alarm system, as well as a back-up generator. There are also security guards on site 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Rates are competitive, and the merchandise will not have to be moved to another location. For further information, please email us at asia@zachys.com or call us at 852.2530.1971.

Pickup

Wines can be picked up from the Zachys Asia warehouse between the hours of 9:30 AM and 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, provided that payment for the lots has been received. Buyers can arrange to collect their wine by appointment by phoning Zachys at 852.2530.1971. Please provide at least 72 hours' notice before coming to collect your purchases. Note there is a gate fee charge when picking up from warehouse. Please contact us at asia@zachys.com or call us at 852.2530.1971 for details.

Please Note: For pickups, any additional packaging and/or handling that is required or requested will be subject to processing fees.

Delivery

Once payment has been received, arrangements can be made to deliver the wines to the Buyer. Purchases will not automatically be shipped. Please email the Collection & Delivery Form (found in this catalog) to asia@zachys.com. For further information on delivery cost within Hong Kong or collection and delivery assistance, please call 852.2530.1971 or email asia@zachys.com. Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments will be subject to a 1% Shipping Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance with respect to purchased property packed, shipped, and delivered pursuant to arrangements made by Zachys. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival. Delivery Charges

Please email asia@zachys.com or give us a call at 852.2530.1971 for local and overseas delivery costs.

Consolidated Shipments

Zachys offers consolidated sea shipments between Port Chester and Hong Kong several times a year. Subsidized consolidated air shipping is also available along those routes at a rate of HK$115 per 0.75L. Currency is determined by the origin of the shipment.

Dedicated Delivery

Zachys can assist with shipments to many international destinations. Quotes vary based upon quantity and destination.

Please contact us at auction@zachys.com or 914.448.3026 to obtain a quote.

Special Notices:

Delivery charges will include any applicable tax, duty, tariffs, or other fees as required by laws. Buyers are responsible for import tariffs at the destination country.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Currency of fulfillment and applicable fees are determined by the origin of the shipment.

Zachys is not responsible for any acts or omissions of any shipper with whom Buyer, not Zachys, has made arrangements to pack, ship or deliver purchased lots, including, without limitation, any packing, shipping or delivery of purchased lots.

Adult signature is required for all shipments.

Please contact our Customer Service Department at +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or by email at auction@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com with inquiries or for more information.
