The Private Cellar of A.A.G.

Every so often, a collection of wine comes up for auction that takes the collector on a journey of discovery. Obscure grapes from less-heralded regions, producers new to the auction market, and so on.

This is not one of those collections.

This is Legends.

The collection you see before you is the product of over 60 years and two generations of father & son collecting the best of the best. The owners approached their collecting with a long-term plan: to buy wines on release and cellar them for the next generation's enjoyment. To have this sort of foresight, at this volume, as early as the 1960s—when Michael Broadbent was only beginning to invent the modern wine auction—is nearly unheard of.

Our consignor's family was buying the 1960s vintages on releases. He bought thousands of cases of 1982 Bordeaux en primeur, back when 1982 Petrus was $75 and 1982 Mouton was $32. If you'd had a crystal ball, you could've bought 1974 Heitz, Martha's Vineyard, for $65.

Indeed, the family either timed it well, or was exceedingly lucky, as the zenith of their buying and collecting coincided with the rise of Robert Parker Jr. on the world's stage and the golden age of fine wine in the United States.

As you will see as you peruse this catalog, almost no wines have been added to the collection in the last 20 years. The wines were bought directly from the chateaux themselves in many cases. They have been temperature-controlled in a commercial wine warehouse owned by the consignor since purchase. The consignor also recently sold a large tranche of his collection at auction and the resounding response from purchasers was uniformly positive—not an “off” bottle amongst the thousands sold.

Highlights include:

Not a case, but six cases, of the 1959 Latour. Thirty two magnums of 1996 Salon. Two cases of 1982 Petrus. Eighteen bottles of the 100-point 2013 Screaming Eagle. Vieux Château Certan 1947. Dozens of bottles of Lafleur. 1986 Le Pin. Burgundy from Rouget, Engel, Coche Dury, Ramonet and Roumier.

The list goes on and on and on.

We are delighted to bring you this auction of unparalleled quality. Bid with confidence.

Sincerely,

Stu Jakob

Krug

Of all the wine world's luxury brands, Krug is perhaps the most glittering. No expense is spared in its production, though the techniques used are in fact remarkably artisanal, including fermentation in small, old wooden casks. Time is of the essence: the overall ageing cycle is the best part of a decade here, with all wines being aged for at least six years sur pointes (upended, after the "ordinary" ageing period that follows the second fermentation is concluded). No expense is spared, either, in the pricing of its five wines, the cheapest of which, Grande Cuvée, costs as much as many rival houses' top cuvees. This is a wine of magnificent complexity and layered richness, nourishing and diverting, as detailed and textured as a Gobelin tapestry. It contains wines from a decade's worth of vintages and from at least twenty different crus (not all of them Grand or even Premier, one might note); Krug makes no secret, too, of its need and love for Pinot Meunier. (The Krug 1928 vintage, regarded by the family as the greatest ever, contained twenty percent Meunier, and there is eighteen percent in the finely honed 1988.) There is also a relatively understated rose of pale tawny hue, and a series of vintage wines of magnificent stylistic oscillation, fully respecting the potential of each year. The Collection vintage wines have spent more years in the Krug cellars in Reims; disgorgement took place at the same time as for "ordinary" vintage wines. Finally, a champagne de terroir: the pure Chardonnay Clos du Mesnil, vinified from wines in a genuine 1.9 hectares walled vineyard within the village of Le Mesnil, purchased by Krug in 1971, and released as a vintage wine beginning with 1979. In great years (like 1988) it is magnificent and multi-dimensional.

Dom Pérignon

Dom Pérignon - the name alone makes most of us break out in a delightful smile. When we think of this 17th-century monk from Hautvillers - so often pointed out as the father of Champagne - we either regard him with historical reverence, or associate his name with the proudest of all wine labels and everything else that follows in its glamorous, sparkling wake...

Back in 1936, Moët & Chandon's marketing director Robert- Jean de Vogüé could not possibly have imagined what he had done when he dreamed up the idea of the world's first prestige champagne - a champagne with a sky-high price that was supposed to be even better than the vintage wine, along with a spectacular look that won respect and prompted extravagant enjoyment...

The style itself is ultra-sophisticated, with an amazingly silky softness combined with toasted fireworks, backed up by an exotic fruitiness in a medium body. When Dom Pérignon is at its best I find notes of forest morelles, cream, peach and an overabundance of roasted coffee beans and nuttiness. Dom Pérignon Rosé is an even more exquisite and rare product that has been molded in a similar form, though its full-bodied shape leans more to strawberry or orange, where the whiter somewhat lighter variety becomes exotic and toasted. Dom Pérignon Oenothèque is the latest child in this distinguished family. At Richard Geoffroy's initiative they now release a restricted number of old, well-preserved bottles from Moët's own cellar in different stages of maturity. The wine can be newly disgorged, but it isn't a fixed thing. What is guaranteed, however, is that the wines are in the best possible condition, and that they most likely will act a little more youthfully than the bottles that have been out on the market for a while. This treasure is now decorated with a luxurious black label in unmistakable style.

And speaking of style...In an age when PR people constantly want to minimize labels and change both bottle design and packaging, Dom Pérignon stands there like a Sophia Loren of the champagne world, unchanged and as timelessly sexy. The balance conveyed in the subtly curvaceous shape of the bottle, paired with an olive green label in the shape of a coat of arms adorned with cursive writing, is still as magical as ever. Since 1970 the wine itself is made exclusively in steel tanks and the grapes are mainly Pinot Noir from Ay, Bouzy, Verzenay and Hautvillers, as well as Chardonnay in approximately equal amounts from Cramant and Mesnil.

Louis Roederer

Roederer did not get its present name until 1833, but was in existence as far back as 1760 under the name of Dubois Père & Fils. Louis Roederer was a hardworking man who succeeded in selling his Champagne in several important export markets. Roederer's real ace was, as with Clicquot, the Russian market. Tsar Alexander II wanted a more impressive label to show his guests, and in 1876 he made a special order for the first transparent Cristal bottles, which at that time actually were made of genuine crystal... in the 1930s...Camille Olry-Roederer took the helm. She invested the money earned from sales in some exceptional vineyards: in Aÿ, Hautvillers, Cumières, Louvois, Verzy, Verzenay, Vertus, Avize, Cramant, Chouilly, and Le Mesnil. Roederer also owns several well-respected vineyards in other locations: Roederer Estate, Ramos Pinto, Haut-Beauséjour and Château de Pez. Today the firm is the most financially successful in the region, thanks largely to these vineyards, which supply Roederer with some seventy percent of its grapes. The house is now run by Jean-Claude Rouzaud who works according to the same principles as those applied in past decades... Roederer is without doubt a brilliant Champagne house with an exceptional portfolio of wines. The non-vintage Champagne is brilliant. The Rosé and Blanc de Blancs offer an aristocratic elegance typical of the house, and the vintage wine is always among the best. Cristal is today the most sought-after cuvée de prestige, and has perhaps the most appetizing appearance of any wine in the world. Cristal Rosé is not only the most expensive rosé Champagne—it is obviously the best. In my opinion, this house is one of the four best in all of Champagne. Every vintage is stunning.

Salon

With its first vintage in 1905, Champagne Salon began its tradition of extreme attention to terroir, quality, and precision. The unique vineyard Le Mesnil-Sur-Oger, where the grapes are sourced, is nestled in the heart of the Côte des Blancs – the home of Chardonnay in Champagne. Made with 100% Grand Cru Chardonnay only in the best years, the wines are cellared in bottle for an average of ten years before release. Simply put, this is a grand vin...with bubbles.

Château Cheval Blanc

Cheval Blanc has a relatively short history compared with the other top-rank châteaux of Bordeaux. As recently as the 1830s it was still a part of Figeac. A portion of that estate was sold to the Ducasse family, then owners of L'Evangile, and by twenty years later, when a Ducasse married a Fourcard-Loussac, the property was already some thirty-one hectares in size. The estate remained with the Fourcard-Loussac family until part of it was sold to Bernard Arnault and his company, LVMH, in 1998. Today, along with Château d'Yquem, it is fully owned by Arnault and managed by the dynamic Pierre Lurton.

Cheval Blanc, across the road from Pomerol, has distinctive soil makeup: about twenty percent sand, forty percent clay and forty percent gravel. In the gravelly and sandy areas the roots have to work hard to stay alive and often reach depths of seven to eight meters, compared with two to three meters in the clay areas.

Today the roughly thirty-seven hectares of vineyards are planted with sixty percent Cabernet Franc and forty percent Merlot. Yields are typically thirty-five hl/ha, and the annual production of 6500 to 7000 cases is bottled after eighteen to twenty-four months in new oak.

LEGENDS

Château Haut-Brion

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10, 1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumel in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

Vineyards, Winemaking and the Delmas Family

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

Château Lafite Rothschild

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The Château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

LEGENDS

Château Latour

Some of my fondest wine memories are of drinking wine bottles of the renowned Château Latour. It is, without a doubt, one of the greatest wine estates in the world. While its history goes well back to the fourteenth century, Latour began to be clearly defined as one of the greatest wine estates in the world in the mid-nineteenth century, and amazingly, It has kept that position for the last 150 years. Their wines, which are known for their power, richness and longevity, are sought after by collectors and wine lovers throughout the world.

As Robert M. Parker says of Château Latour in The World's Greatest Wine Estates, "The wine produced here has been an impeccable model of consistent excellence, in great, mediocre, and poor vintages. For that reason, many have long considered Latour to be the Médoc's finest wine...Latour remains one of the most concentrated, rich, tannic, and full-bodied wines in the world."

In 2000, I had the wonderful opportunity to taste over twenty-five vintages of Château Latour, including fourteen wines older than 1961 and four from the nineteenth century. It was an evening I will never forget. The wines were so rich, alive and fresh. What an extraordinary experience it was to be able to taste the 1900 and the 1899 side by side and discuss the differences, or to argue whether the 1955 or the 1949 is showing better right now (at my table we all thought the 1955 had the slight edge). In the end we tasted Latour from a 125 year span and although there was a lot of discussion about which were the better wines, the final conclusion of everyone in the room was that, "Latour makes some of the greatest wines that any of us have ever tasted."

Château Margaux

Perhaps the grandest of the Bordeaux châteaux, Château Margaux is the epitome of style and refinement. At Château Margaux one has truly arrived at the heart and soul of Bordeaux, the world's most renowned wine region.

For centuries before the French Revolution, the château was owned by the Lestonnac family. The revolution, though, saw the estate's owners beheaded, and when the heirs were unable to pay the costs of running the château, Margaux was put up for auction.

The successful bidder, the Marquis de la Colonilla, demolished the old château, and in 1802 work began on the grand château we know today. The Château was sold several times until it was acquired by the Ginestets, longtime shareholders who finally became sole owners in 1949, with the purchase financed by the sale of their St Emilion property, Clos Fortet. However, First Growth châteaux are expensive to run, and to finance the operations of the estate, the owner sold off the vineyards of Dufort Vivens in the 1960s and transferred Cos d'Estournel to his sister in 1971. Even those moves, though, were not enough, and collapse of the Bordeaux market in the early 1970s forced Ginestet to sell the château in 1976 to Greek supermarket magnate Andre Mentzelopoulos. A serious oenophile, he was also a major shareholder in the French wine firm, Nicolas.

Château Mouton Rothschild

Mouton, like much of Pauillac in the sixteenth century, was part of the sprawling Ségur estate. In the mid-eighteenth century the land that is now Mouton Rothschild was acquired by Baron de Brane, who changed the name to Brane-Mouton. Brane sold it in 1830 to an M Thuret; while it was already a notable Château, first appearing in a Christie's catalog in 1834, Thuret did not make maintenance of the Château a priority and resold it in 1853. The purchaser was Baron Nathaniel de Rothschild, at the time head of the English arm of the wealthy Rothschild family.

While Mouton was always a highly regarded wine, a big change came when in 1922, when the twenty-one-year-old Baron Philippe decided to run the Château full-time. An innovator from the start of his tenure, in 1924 he decided that in order to guarantee quality the entire production would be bottled at the Château, and from 1934 he numbered each bottle released. Also, of course, he started the tradition of works of art on Mouton labels, featuring the famous Carlu ram's head from 1924 to 1926, and since a hiatus from then until 1945, each label has either been designed by a major artist or featured a tribute to a significant event in the Château's history.

Perhaps his most significant achievement was persuading the French Minister for Agriculture, Jacques Chirac, that Mouton was and had always been a First Growth that had been wrongly classified. So, in 1973, for the first and only time, a revised edition of the 1855 classification was released with Mouton finally ranked, next to its Pauillac neighbors Lafite and Latour, as a First Growth.

Petrus

Petrus today is a little over eleven hectares, including five hectares purchased in 1969 from neighboring Château Gazin. The vineyards have clay topsoil and gravelly subsoil, allowing good initial water retention but excellent longer term drainage. The vines are old, around forty to fifty years, planted with ninety percent Merlot and five percent Cabernet Franc. To increase concentration the vines are pruned extensively and a green harvest is performed. At harvest time, nearly two hundred workers pick the grapes at their peak of balance and ripeness. Sometimes up to four passes are needed but if pressed, as in 1982, the entire harvest can be completed in just one day.

The grapes are partially destemmed and after a fairly lengthy maceration period, sometimes almost a month, the wine spends twenty months in new oak before being fined (but not filtered) and bottled. Petrus is a classic example of careful vineyard management and winemaking yet the result leaves evidence of something even greater. These methods combine with exquisite terroir for Merlot to create something that is, in good vintages, not only earth-shatteringly tasty, but distinctive, lending the name Petrus majesty because of its quality but also its inimitability.

Château Angélu

Since 1989, Angélu is considered one of the top estates in the entire Right Bank appellation. Hubert de Bouard is currently in charge of managing the family directed property. Today, all the children participate in running the estate. Prior to his tenure, the truth is, the property was not making wines as good as their terroir allowed.

Shortly after de Bouard began running the property, he instituted another change. He changed the name from L'Angélu to Angélu. He said, "This allows the wine to show up first in alphabetized lists." He was right! Château Angélu was one of the first chateaux to expand into China and Asia. In part, some of their initial success into China was due to their logo of the golden bell, where the wine is referred to as Kin Chung, The Golden Bell. In fact, Hubert de Bouard has always been a savvy marketer. He was one of the first people to connect with Hollywood when he negotiated the addition of Château Angélu into the plot of a James Bond movie!

Château Cos d'Estournel

Château Cos d'Estournel is regarded by many as the finest wine within the northern commune of Saint Estèphe and is certainly an aesthete's delight. Driving past the stately Château Lafite Rothschild with its manicured gardens and willow-trees billowing in the wind, you enter a rollercoaster dip which ascends towards a building that appears to have been designed on LSD with its Chinese pagodas and menagerie of creatures: lions, elephants and unicorns sculpted in sandstone that radiates at sunset. Even the large main door is ornately carved with exotic flora and fauna. What is surprising is that this is not even a place of residence: but simply one of the most outrageously decadent chais in the world.

History

The history of Château Cos d'Estournel is one of the most colourful in Bordeaux and is associated with iconic figures of the nineteenth century.

The word "Cos" derives from Gascogne tongue, meaning "hill of pebbles" whilst its appendage is down to Louis-Gaspard d'Estournel who was born in 1753 and lived to the ripe old age of ninety-one, passing away just two years before his beloved estate was classified as a Second Growth, along with Château Montrose. Louis Gaspard had a penchant for acquiring land, inheriting his first parcel at the tender age of twenty-nine and having acquired a parcel of vines near the village of Cos, he recognized that the terroir was similar to that of Lafite and immediately resolved to create a wine of equal stature. Between 1821 and 1857 he expanded the vineyard piecemeal from twelve to fifty-seven hectares including the best parcel of vines from the neighbouring Château Cos Labory, eventually owning the whole hill.

Château La Conseillante

One of the most elegant labels among all the top growths in the Gironde area is that produced by Château La Conseillante in Pomerol. The label is white with a fancy silver shield and a broad silver border. The capsule is a rich blue-purple which will stand out in every bin. Moreover, what is in the bottle is, after Petrus, one of the best wines in the commune.

The female councilor in the title, La Conseillante, was Catherin Conseillan, a dame de fer, a lady who had a business dealing in metals in Libourne in the middle third of the eighteenth century...Perhaps it was because she wholesaled ploughshares and wire on which vines could be trained that this lady had the idea of developing a section of land on the Pomerol-St Emilion border between 1735 and 1776. She was certainly one of the pioneers of vineyard exploitation in the area. In 1756 a wine called La Conseillante was baptized. It has been one of the leading Pomerol crus ever since.

The Vineyard

La Conseillante lies at the extreme eastern end of Pomerol just by the crossroads where one turns off the D21 to go down to Cheval Blanc, and is bounded by Petit Village, Vieux Château Certan, Petrus and L'Évangile on the Pomerol side and by Cheval Blanc itself across the road and the commune boundary. Part of the vineyard, indeed, is in St Emilion. The vineyard is in one piece and has remained the same size, roughly twelve hectares, since the Nicolas purchase. It now produces forty to forty-five tonneaux from equal proportions of Merlot and Cabernet Franc and ten percent Malbec.

The land here is some thirty-five metres above sea level, a plateau of gravel, clay and sand, which rises marginally to the north towards Petrus and descends in the opposite direction towards the Dordogne and the outskirts of Libourne.

The Winemaking

The winemaking...has remained traditional. The wine undergoes a long maceration with the skins, is matured in oak barrels, half of which are renewed each year, and kept twenty to twenty-four months before bottling. It is neither filtered nor, even when it undergoes periodic racking, never pumped. Movement from one receptacle to another is by gravity...The wine resembles Lafleur Petrus rather than Lafleur or Petrus itself in that it is elegant rather than densely structured, perfumed and accessible rather than firm and unforthcoming, delicately rich and refined rather than voluptuously solid. This, I would suggest, is a result of the gravel and sand elements in the soil. What I find exciting about a good Conseillante is its complexity, the depth and concentration of its fruit; above all, its breed. Though it seems to mature faster than some of its more muscular neighbours, the wine is normally impeccably balanced and therefore will certainly keep. As the Conseillante motto has it: 'Faire peu mais fair bon' ('Make little, but make it good'). It deserves its high reputation.

Château La Mission Haut-Brion

Although the histories of Château Haut-Brion and La Mission are entwined, both have always been separate entities, sharing a common family name. It is only since 1983 that they have shared the same proprietor when it was taken over by the owners of Haut-Brion...

On November 2nd 1983, the present owners acquired La Mission after the owner Francis Dewavrin was unable to resolve internal family disputes over the way the property was managed and it marks a convergence of histories between Château Haut-Brion and La Mission, though only in the sense that they share the same owner: Clarence Dillon. He enlisted Jean-Bernard Delmas as Château-manager and there followed a period that has consolidated La Mission's position as one of the greatest estates, hovering just outside the First Growths.

Their commitment to innovation and improvements has been a catalyst for many estates in the Graves region to improve their wines, particularly with respect of clonal selection research. In 1987 the old chai was renovated, a new state-of-the-art cuvier was installed and a new bottling line was implemented in 1996. It must be emphasized that the estates are treated as separate entities, even though at some point the vines of both run side-by-side. In 2003 Jean-Bernard retired and handed the reins over to his son, Jean-Philippe Delmas.

The Wines

Certainly since the arrival of Jean-Bernard Delmas the style of wine has improved: the wine is more pure and the volatile acidity has been eradicated. At its best (the 1966, 1975, 1998) La Mission is a massive, tannic behemoth that has more in common with Château Latour than Château Haut-Brion. It is a powerful, sturdy wine with firm tannins and admirable longevity...

This is definitely one of the most intriguing wines in Bordeaux: the appeal of La Mission is that it seems to avoid the vagaries of wine-making trends and wears its heart on its sleeve. This is a classic wine in every sense of the word and it can make a seamless match with food. A poor La Mission is still a better wine than most; a good La Mission is a great wine and a great La Mission can be a religious experience. I have met few wine-critics who do not hold this estate in high esteem: it is a wine for true wine-lovers.

Château Lafleur

Originally part of the Le Gay estate, Lafleur is owned by the Robin family, also owners of Le Gay until 2002. Today Lafleur is managed by Jacques Guinaudeau, a cousin of the owners. The vineyard is just 200 meters from Petrus and although gravelly in appearance, the soils do contain a fair amount of clay. The vines here are fairly old, having largely avoided the 1956 frost, and the yields are low, just twenty-six hl/ha. The grapes are total destemmed, and the wines spend roughly sixteen to twenty months in fifty percent new oak barriques.

This is an extremely rich and heady wine, like liquid velvet, big and muscular when young, but mellowing wonderfully in time. Unfortunately for the many fans of Lafleur, production is a meager 1000 to 1200 cases a year.

Le Pin

The vineyard has humble beginnings. Mme. Loubie owned the land from 1924 until her passing in March 1979 and during this time the wine was sold as generic Pomerol. When Jacques Thienpont purchased the meager 1.6-hectares parcel for one million francs, he named his wine Le Pin, after a solitary pine tree that shaded the property. His cousin, Alexandre Thienpont once told me that Jacques contemplated absorbing the tiny parcel into Vieux Château Certan in order to supplement the production, but had a change of heart once it was his possession, after all quality was already improving at Vieux Château Certan.

Throughout the 1980s and early 1990s the wine became an icon of modern Bordeaux. Le Pin was soon challenging the supremacy of Petrus not only in terms of price, but in terms of quality. Its scarcity, memorable name, its understated label, charismatic proprietor and most importantly quality, provided the rocket fuel for its meteoric rise into the élite in a handful of years. The present encepagement is 92% Merlot with just 8% Cabernet Franc although the final blend is usually 100% Merlot, similar to Château Petrus.

Château Léoville Las Cases

The château gets its name from the Marquis de Las-Cases Beauvoice who, upon the dividing up of the vast Léoville estate, ended with the largest portion. Hugh Barton bought a quarter, Baron Poyferré (a relative) ended up with another quarter, and the remaining half went to the Marquis.

As debt accumulated during the earlier part of the twentieth century, the estate was gradually acquired by its then manager, Theophile Skavinski. Jean-Hubert Delon, the estate's present owner, is one of his descendants.

The Wine

Although there are nearly 100 hectares under vine here, it is the fifty-three hectares of Grand Clos with that famous wall and arched entrance that is the primary source of fruit for the grand vin. The vines are planted to seventy percent Cabernet Sauvignon, seventeen percent Merlot and thirteen percent Cabernet Franc. Ageing is in sixty-five percent new oak barriques for fifteen to eighteen months, which just goes to show you don't need three and a half years in 100 percent new oak to make great wine. The second wine, Clos du Marquis, was one of Bordeaux' first when the 1902 vintage debuted.

These are serious wines, as good as any in the Médoc and in many years outperforming its second growth status. This estate could be called "the Latour of St Julien," which is actually not very far from the truth as it does reside right next door to the First Growth!

LEGENDS

Château L'Evangile

History

By the 1780s the estate, then known as Fazilleau, was already some thirteen hectares (it is fourteen hectares today). Just prior to the century's turning it was sold to a lawyer named Isambert, who changed the name to L'Evangile. The estate was up for sale again in 1862, this time bought by Paul Chaperon, and it stayed with his descendants (the Ducasse family) until its purchase by the Rothschilds of Château Lafite in 1990.

The Wine

While not a big producer compared to the chateaux of the Medoc, L'Evangile manages around 5000 cases annually from its fourteen hectares holding. It is a typical Pomerol blend of eighty percent Merlot and twenty percent Cabernet Franc, all of which spends eighteen to twenty-four months in fifty percent new oak barrels.

L'Evangile is a wine of great refinement, poised, focused and with layers ripe silky fruit with a nice hint of graphite and earth.

Château Montrose

Château Montrose is a relatively recent estate compared with its neighbors, but in a very short time rose from woodland to second growth status in the 1855 classification. Since 1945 Montrose has been a star performer and while at times it has been undervalued in the marketplace, today that finally is changing.

History

In 1778 some unused woodland belonging to the Ségur family was sold off and purchased, along with Calon Ségur, by the Dumoulin family. In the early 1800s they began to plant vines, and by 1832 vineyards covered over thirty hectares. Around this time, a small chateau-type building was built and the wine first appeared under the name of Montrose (a name of unknown origin). Though a very young estate, it gained second growth status in 1855, by which time there were almost fifty hectares under vine. It passed to the Charmolue family in 1896, and remains under their ownership.

The Wine

While Montrose was sixty-five hectares in size by the 1890s, unlike many of its peers it has barely grown at all since then and is currently around the sixty-eight hectares mark. The vineyards are planted with sixty-five percent Cabernet Sauvignon, twenty-five percent Merlot and ten percent Cabernet Franc, with annual production of around 25000 cases. Château Montrose is known as a very consistent performer, especially in lesser years when many of its neighbors struggle.

LEGENDS

Château Palmer

The estate was originally known as Domaine de Gasq, part of the vast holdings of the de Gasq family. When Alexandre de Gasq died early in the nineteenth century, his widow Marie Brunet de Ferriere had no interest in running a chateau, and decided to sell. The buyer was Major General Charles Palmer, the son of a wealthy MP who joined the army and soon rose to the position of Aide-de-Camp to the Prince Regent. While in France, fighting near the end of Napoleonic wars, he went to Bordeaux where upon his arrival he had a chance meeting with Marie Brunet de Ferriere, then on her way to Paris to sell the chateau. The idea of a wine estate in the area appealed to Palmer and in 1814, just two days after arriving in Bordeaux, Château de Gasq was his.

Soon after that, Palmer's life became very difficult. He inadvertently became involved in a scandal in London that cost him his favor with the Prince Regent and also, in February 1815, resulted in a duel at noon on the outskirts of Paris with another important British commander. From then on he concentrated his efforts on winemaking. Over the next fifteen years he would spend a small fortune expanding the chateau holdings, eventually more than doubling its size. He also changed the name to Château Palmer and began to market it in London.

In 1853 Palmer was purchased by brothers Emile and Isaac Periere. Successful entrepreneurs and financiers, they had the means to significantly upgrade the estate. First on the agenda was the building of the wondrous chateau we know today, designed by the same architect as the new Château Pichon Longueville up the road in Pauillac. One does not have to have any architectural grounding to notice the immense similarities between these two buildings.

Unlike many chateaux, Château Palmer entered the twentieth century in fine shape. However, after the war and then the depression, the Pèires were in financial trouble and just prior to the Second World War they sold Château Palmer. With the estate operating at a big loss, and both cellars and vineyards in disrepair, Palmer was purchased by a consortium for almost nothing. Its main members, the Sichel and Mahler-Besse families, bought out their partners over time and by 1982 they owned it outright with one-third and two-thirds ownership respectively.

Today there are again a number of shareholders, but Sichel and Mahler-Besse remain the biggest and still play a very important part in the direction of the Château. The estate is now managed by Thomas Duroux and Technical Director Philippe Delfaut. With their drive and business acumen Palmer remains constantly on the heels of Château Margaux.

Today, Château Palmer is still owned by the descendants of the Mahler-Besse and Sichel families. In 2004, the shareholders placed Thomas Duroux, a thirty-four-year-old agronomist and oenologist, at the head of Château Palmer. In 2007, Sabrina Pernet was named the chateau's technical director.

LEGENDS

Château Pichon Longueville Comtesse de Lalande

History

Pichon Lalande was originally part of the Pichon Longueville estate, owned by Baron Pichon de Longueville. Upon the Baron's passing in 1850, the estate was divided up among his five children in accordance with the inheritance laws, but only two children actually took possession of the two new estates, and the wines were not made separately for another ten years. When the last of the heirs to what became Pichon Lalande died in 1926 the Château was sold to the Miailhe family, eventually passing to May-Elaine Lenquesaing. A solid performer for much of the century, Pichon Lalande has been one of the top wines of the Médoc since she became involved in the 1970s.

The Wine

Today the seventy-five hectares under vine, planted with forty-five percent Cabernet Sauvignon, thirty-five percent Merlot, twelve percent Cabernet Franc and eight percent Petit Verdot, produce 35,000 cases per year. The vineyards are just north of Latour on fine gravelly soils. I often think the flavours are somewhere between those of Mouton and Latour, and in quality, it can rival any wine in the commune, including the First Growths.

Château Trotanoy

History

In the 1868 edition of Cocks & Feret's book on Bordeaux, Château Trotanoy was considered second only to Vieux Château Certan among Pomerol chateaux. First mentioned in the 1750s, by the start of the nineteenth century Trotanoy was owned by the Giraud family and some twenty-five hectares in size, although French inheritance laws have made it much smaller today. The Giraud family eventually sold it in the 1920s to Pécresse, who then sold it to the rising Moueix family in 1953, and almost immediately Trotanoy began to produce some of the finest wines.

The Wine

Today Château Trotanoy has just eight hectares, with the blend and winemaking very similar to Petrus. The ninety percent Merlot and ten percent Cabernet Franc vines average fifty years of age, some much longer; total annual production is approximately 2500 cases (about half that of Petrus).

Vieux Château Certan

History

Originally known as Sertan, the chateau was owned by the Demay family from the 1750s until the mid-nineteenth century when a portion of was sold to Charles de Bousquet (another portion is now Certan de May). Cocks & Feret listed VCC first among Pomerol vineyards in their publication of 1868. It remained with de Bousquet until its sale to Georges Thienpont in 1924, a member of a family of successful Belgian merchants who still own VCC, as well as its neighbor Le Pin.

The Wine

The vineyards have gravel topsoil with an iron-rich clay subsoil, perfect for the Merlot and Cabernet Franc which dominate the blend. A little larger than Petrus, the vineyards cover 13.5 hectares producing roughly 5000 cases annually. The grapes, sixty percent Merlot, thirty percent Cabernet Franc and ten percent Cabernet Sauvignon, are totally destemmed prior to fermentation in tank. Following this they then go into 100 percent new oak barriques for eighteen to twenty-two months before fining with egg whites and bottling.

"I have tasted this wine four times in the last year and it was exceptional in each tasting. The opaque dark purple/garnet color is followed by a huge, exotic nose of caramel, sweet cassis, soy sauce, walnuts, and coffee. Thick, chewy, fabulously concentrated flavors with low acidity and high tannin coat the palate. There is amazing glycerin and an elevated alcohol level to this super-concentrated wine...98." René Engel

René Engel was one of the most famous Vosne-Romanée estates until Philippe, René's grandson, died in 2005. Philippe had been making the wine at his grandfather's estate since the early '80s, under René's watchful eye, of course. The estate was famous for a classic style of Burgundy that focused on finesse and elegance, and less extraction. The Domaine was sold to François Pinault (owner of Château Latour and Christie's, among other things) after Philippe's death in 2005 and is now known as Domaine Eugénie, after Pinault's mother. The wines of René Engel are disappearing quickly as they're not being made, and the collectors who own them can't help but drink them.

Domaine Ponsot

Domaine Ponsot in Morey St Denis has long been one of the most important domaines in the Côte d'Or. It began rather meagerly with just a hectare of vines in the 1920s (according to Remington Norman, though I have seen figures of an initial three hectares elsewhere), but had grown to the six hectares by the last 1940s, when Jean-Marie Ponsot began to work with his father, Hippolyte Ponsot. Jean-Marie succeeded to full control of the domaine in 1957, and his son, Laurent, (the current head of the family domaine) made his first vintage in 1983. Today the domaine is just short of nine hectares, with more than a third of it in Clos de la Roche, of which the Ponsots are the largest landholders. In addition to the family's own vines, the Ponsots had over the years entered into a number of different metayage (sharecropping) agreements, which brought vines under their control in crus such as Latricières- Chambertin, Griottes-Chambertin, Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny Les Charmes, as well as a bit more Clos de la Roche and Clos St Denis to augment their own holdings.

For years the domaine's wines were reputed to be very inconsistent from vintage to vintage, with their successes amongst the very greatest wines of any given vintage, but the less successful vintages relative failures. Much of this has been attributed to the propensity of both Jean-Marie and Laurent Ponsot to harvest very late, shooting for maximum ripeness to add a powerful dimension to their wines. When this methodology worked, as in vintages such as 1980, 1985, 1989, 1990 or 1991, the Ponsot wines were monumental blockbusters, thick with lush, creamy old vine fruit, strongly marked by their respective terroirs and very complex. In the "homerun" vintages, Ponsot wines are rich, bordering on syrupy (as they have such voluptuous fruit), but with excellent structural elements and fine focuses as well.

Joseph Roty

Since 1710 the family has been based in Gevrey. The current 'reputation' of Domaine Joseph Roty was down to Joseph himself, not just the comments of Remington and Clive, but also the quality of domaine's highly sought-after wines, wines mainly produced from old and in some cases some very, very old vines – très vieilles vignes if you prefer!

Joseph started the core of today's domaine in the late 1960s with vines that came from his grandfather, vines that included Mazy (they spell like Rousseau), Griotte and Charmes-Chambertin Grand Crus.

Joseph was lost to this world in 2008, and although widow Roty still works behind the scenes, it is the sons of Joseph – Philippe and Pierre-Jean – the eleventh generation at this family domaine that do the heavy stuff while a twelfth generation are playing in the yard. Philippe had anyway being working progressively more with his father since about 1990 – there is very little that has been changed.

Charmes-Chambertin Cuvée Très Vieilles Vignes Joseph Roty 2003

original carton

Provenance: Zachys 2013

"Extremely ripe yet still fresh aromas of plum jam, mocha, underbrush and wood spice lead to full-bodied, intense and completely mouth coating flavors and the level of dry extract here is exceptional. This is certainly less elegant than it usually is but it's also more concentrated with dense but fine tannins and huge length. This isn't really my style but it is undeniably a dramatic, powerful and high caliber effort...92." BH 1/06.

Emmanuel Rouget

Emmanuel began working with his uncle Henri (that's Henri Mayer of course) in the early 1980s. From 1985 he began releasing wines under his own label. He worked closely with his Henri Mayer until his passing and today has taken over much of the Henri Mayer portfolio including making the wines for Henri's brother, George.

Rouget follows pretty closely the methods used by his late uncle, these include; two sortings of grapes (one in the vineyard and one in the cellars), cold pre-fermentation, 100 percent new oak and of course incredible attention to detail from vineyard to bottle.

Current holdings:

Echézeaux 1.43 ha

Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Beaumonts 0.26 ha

Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Cros Parantoux 0.77 ha

Vosne-Romanée 1.20 ha

Nuits St Georges Lavières 0.60 ha

Savigny Lès Beaune 0.33 ha

Côte de Nuits Villages Les Chaillots 0.25 ha

Needless to say Emmanuel has developed into a very serious winemaker over the years and today stands well and truly among the elite of Burgundy. No serious cellar is complete without them.

WHITE BURGUNDY

Jean-François Coche-Dury

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Mayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Mayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation contrôlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose an example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

Domaine Ramonet

Pierre Ramonet was more than a character. He was, to use the old cliché – but it is true in this instance – a legend in his own lifetime. More or less from scratch, by dint of sheer hard work and a genius for wine, he built up one of the finest white wine domaines in Burgundy. Today the name of Ramonet is synonymous with top Chardonnay. The allocations for bottles are fought over, for every collector considers it his or her right to own some. They sell at auction for astronomical sums whenever they appear. On the rare occasions, as in January 1995 at the Montrachet restaurant in New York, when someone puts on a special vertical tasting and dinner, the tickets – and they are not cheap – are over-subscribed ten times. Ramonet in white is the equivalent of Henri Jaye or the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti in red.

Pierre Ramonet died in 1994 at the age of eighty-eight. He is much missed. But his echo lives on, and the wines, in the able hands of his grandsons Noël (born in 1962) and Jean-Claude (born in 1967) since the 1984 vintage (mais sous ses ordres, stoutly avers Noël), continue his reputation. They are very fine. A Ramonet wine is a Ramonet wine before it is a Chassagne, or a Bienvenues, or a Bâtard...or a Montrachet.

Château Beaucastel

Beaucastel's history dates back to 1549 when "Noble Pierre de Beaucastel" bought a barn with its land holdings, containing twenty-five saumees at Coudoulet. More than four centuries later, this remarkable domaine, known today as Château de Beaucastel, has been producing what some acknowledge to be the finest wines of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. In 1953 Jacques Perrin, son of chemical engineer and mathematics professor Pierre Perrin, took over the domaine and introduced many innovations such as improved grape varietals, integrated pest control (after experiencing the ravages of phylloxera), and a flash-heat exchanger.

The vineyards of Beaucastel are treated as a garden: no chemical fertilizer, no chemical weed killers or sprays are permitted. Organic fertilizer comes from compost and only a minimum of traditional sulfur-copper spray is used in the vineyards. At extremely low yields, each variety is harvested separately to ensure optimum maturity. All grapes are picked by hand, de-stemmed, and flash-heated to transfer aromas and color while avoiding additional sulfur dioxide.

Each varietal is vinified separately to maintain its own character and originality. Each variety is carefully tasted before blending, and then transferred to large oak barrels for 1 ½ years of aging. Without being fined or filtered, these blends need to be decanted after only a few years in the bottle.

Since 1978, Jacques Perrin's sons, Jean Pierre and François, have been at the helm and beginning in 1989 in very exceptional years they produce a special cuvee in honor of their father. The Château de Beaucastel Hommage à Jacques Perrin is a special selection of the best of a great vintage, yielding small quantities of intensely ripe and concentrated wines.

JL Chave

Considered widely as the quintessential Hermitage producer, Chave typifies traditionalism in both viticulture and his winemaking philosophy. The Domaine, begun in 1481, has been handed down from generation to generation. While Gerard Chave still maintains a presence, it is his son, Jean-Louis who is at the helm making some of the best wines in France, if not the world over. The family owns eight plots of land on the hill of Hermitage and in a time when single vineyard cuvees are all the rage, still holds true to the belief that the assemblage of all of the grapes produces a more complex, powerful and artisanal wine. To Jean-Louis the soil differences found in each plot of land profoundly affect production which is why the expression of the blend is superior to the single vineyard. Chave is passionate about allowing the grapes to achieve complete ripeness via a long hang time on the vine and therefore the wines exude profound extraction as well as substantial alcohol. There is also a natural selection of low yielding fruit due to an average vine age of sixty years or more which adds greater intensity to the wines. The vineyards are farmed organically and the horse and plough are utilized to this day!

The Hermitage Rouge is made of 100 percent Syrah while the Blanc is generally eighty percent Marsanne and twenty percent Roussanne. In vinification, contrary to modernist techniques once again, Chave eschews new oak, using only ten percent for the Rouge and mostly old oak and stainless steel for the fermentation and aging of the Blanc. The white Hermitage has the texture and richness of a great white Burgundy with immense complexity and the ability to age substantially. When serving the Blanc, Jean-Louis advises that they are not chilled too much, and are always decanted for a short period. The Rouge is a highlight.

Guigal

Marcel Guigal - perfectionist, fanatical, pernickety – is the super-star of the appellation and probably sells more Côte-Rôtie under his own label than all the other growers combined. Despite this size, however, the quality is exemplary - as they should be at the prices he charges! He harvests late, insists on very low yields, and keeps the wines in a combination of barrel and small foudres and demi-muids, all newish wood, for up to three and a half years before bottling. Their wines are so concentrated they can withstand this wait without drying out, and remain profound, rich and individual. La Landonne is the Brune, La Mouline the Blonde, La Turque the sort of hermaphroditic mixture. Usually my favourite is the Landonne. The Château d'Ampuis bottling combines elements of both the sectors of Côte-Rôtie, from vines in the climats of La Pommier, Le Pavillon, La Garde and Le Clos.

Bruno Giacosa

Bruno Giacosa was born in the town of Nieve, within the Barbaresco DOCG. As young as thirteen Bruno was assisting his father and grandfather in the cellars, and by the age of fifteen he was fully employed in the family firm. Bruno's grandfather, Carlo Giacosa, started the firm in the late nineteenth century when the wine was sold in demi-johns and not estate bottled. It was not until the 1960s that the Giacosas began to sell more wine in bottle than in demi-john!

Up until 1964 the family did not offer any individual cru bottlings of either Barbaresco or Barolo, and following tradition in the region, they were labeled simply as Barolo or Barbaresco. It is noted that even as far back as Carlo Giacosa's time, the wines were vinified and kept separately in the cellars. The two vineyards which they primarily purchased from at that time, the Gallina and Santo Stefano, were only blended together for the Barbaresco "Riserva Speciale" and therefore all regular Barbaresco bottlings were in effect two distinct Barbarescos released under the same label.

Like so many of the top producers in Piedmont, the Giacosas did not own any of the vineyards from which they made their wines. In 1982, they finally purchased a vineyard holding of their own, the 8.4 hectare Falletto vineyard in the village of Serralunga. This purchase in Barolo was followed up more than a decade later when the Giacosa family bought pieces in two of the greatest terroirs in Barbaresco, the Asili and Rabaja vineyards, in time to produce bottlings of the 1996 vintage.

The style of Giacosa's wines are quite traditional, though the fermentations are not quite as long as many of their neighbors of the "old school". Typically the maceration will now last from fourteen to twenty-four days for the Barbarescos and Barolos, which is quite a bit shorter than a producer such as Giuseppe Mascarello, whose Barolo Monprivato macerates for at least thirty days (down from sixty days in years past). Following this maceration the wines are racked into large casks called botti and aged for three to four years. The control of the winery is now in the capable hands of daughter Bruna Giacosa and Cellarmaster Dante Scaglione.

There are no wines that match the prestige or class of Giacosa's in all of Barbaresco and only a select few which share the crown in Barolo.

Gaja

In the mid-nineteenth century the Gaja family began producing wine in Piedmont. Giovanni Gaja established the winery and Angelo, the fourth generation, joined the family firm in 1961. Angelo Gaja, born in 1940 and the present director of the family firm, has a degree in enology from Alba as well as a masters in economics. In 1974 he went to California, where he presumably fell under the spell of the barrique. Gaja has achieved unequivocal success aging his Barbarescos in small, new oak barrels, where the wine takes on a certain subtlety and suppleness without losing the personality of the Nebbiolo grape.

Gaja is the largest private owner of vineyards in the Barbaresco zone, with 153 acres of vines in Barbaresco, Treiso, and Alba. They own fourteen different vineyards in Barbaresco and Treiso that make up their Barbaresco normale. Besides this regular Barbaresco, Gaja bottles three individual crus. Of the three, Costa Russi matures the soonest. It is the most open, with a sweeter taste and more intense aroma. Sori Tildin is more closed and concentrated; it is firm in texture and holds more in reserve. Sori San Lorenzo is the hardest of all in its youth, requiring age to show its real quality. It is the slowest maturing of the crus as well as the longest lived.

Masseto

Masseto is the famous 100% Merlot IGT...and is regarded as one of the best expressions of Merlot in the world. The Merlot vines are cultivated in alluvial, sandy-clayey soils that are rich in minerals. The same care and attention is paid in the vineyard as Ornellaia, with meticulous vineyard husbandry and rigorous sorting.

However the vinification is slightly different, with alcoholic fermentation carried out in wooden vats rather than stainless-steel, ranging in size from 65hl to 125hl. The wine is racked and then transferred into oak barriques where it remains for 24 months, with blending at 12 months.

Screaming Eagle's Broad Wingspan

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

END OF SALE

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (ii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iii) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 25% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot and is subject to change.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.5803.8244 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. Zachys requires a valid credit card for new registrants.

Prospective Buyers may be asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please prearrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971.

All bidders who wish to attend the auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at zachys.com. Complete and either email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com or fax the form to +1.914.713.8220 or +852.2530.1971 at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bids provided to Zachys prior to the first session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. All bids are final and will not be cancelled.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity, and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will attempt to move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

For live auctions, a maximum bid may be entered online. You must confirm the bid to submit it. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is entered that does not match a bidding increment, a message will be displayed to provide the increments that are closest to the bid entered. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at <https://auction.zachys.com/>. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above 16,000 HKD or 2,000 USD and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Timed Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of a timed auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. You must confirm the id to submit it. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is entered that does not match a bidding increment, a message will be displayed to provide the increments that are closest to the bid entered. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location. Because title passes from Zachys to Buyer in the state of New York (see Passage of Title and Storage), all sales are subject to New York sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the Buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the Buyer.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale.

All questions regarding tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034 or +852.2530.1971.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 25% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

Payment for all invoices is due immediately upon receipt.

For timed auction ("zCollections") purchases: Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for the full invoice amount within 48 hours of the sale close.

For live auction purchases: Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file within 48 hours of the sale close.

In respect of all other purchases, buyers are expected to pay for purchases or balances within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for internet sales. At the end of this 14 or 7 calendar-day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due.

Zachys reserves the right to cancel the sale of invoices still unpaid on the 31st day after an auction.

For US auctions, payment is accepted in United States Dollars.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in Hong Kong Dollars.

To request payment in another currency, contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate.

Payment can be made by credit card or bank wire transfer. In the event of third-party payments, Zachys may require an Authorization Letter from both parties.

Payment by Credit Card

All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Union Pay. Payment can be made via phone by calling +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971.

Payments made by credit card will incur a 2% processing fee.

When making payment via UnionPay, winning bidder must sign the auction invoice and acknowledge that possession of the wine has transferred from Zachys at time of payment. Signature must be same as the one signed on payslip.

Collection of Purchases

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Prospective Buyers' attention is drawn to the Conditions of Sale, including Condition 9.

Collection & Delivery

It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Unless Buyer is located in the state of New York, Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products to buyer. For Buyers located outside of the state of New York, Zachys will deliver all alcoholic beverages purchased to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer (see Passage of Title and Storage).

After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyer's expense, direction and request.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. Under no circumstances will substitutes be provided by Zachys; including but not limited to in case of breakage or error in catalog description. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

2 The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 25% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

3 Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

4 Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

5 In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

6 Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7 All alcoholic beverages purchased from Zachys are sold in the state of New York, and title passes to the buyer in the state of New York in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code. All sales are subject to NY sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the purchaser. If the Purchaser is a resident of a state other than New York, all alcoholic beverage purchases will be delivered to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer, who may arrange with the facility to pick up the inventory in person or arrange for delivery under the law of the purchaser's state or the ultimate destination of the goods.

8a Title to the offered lot, passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information. Title passes to Buyer in the state of New York, where the sale takes place.

8b The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

9 No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and on the seventh calendar day following the internet sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 90 calendar days after the date of sale. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 90 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

10 Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

12

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale, or to cancel the sale of any lot unpaid 31 calendar days after sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property or 90 days after the sale, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

For auctions that are held in New York, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

17

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

18

New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured, and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

22

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

23

Title and Risk of Loss. For New York residents, title and risk of loss to all goods shall pass to you upon our transfer of the products to the applicable carrier, or upon delivery to you if Zachys is acting as the carrier. For non-New York residents, title and risk of loss to all goods shall pass to you upon our delivery of the products to the independent storage facility, upon your receipt of the products from the Zachys premises, or upon transfer to an applicable carrier or third party in accordance with any alternative shipping/storage methods you decide. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Zachys reserves the right, exercisable in its sole discretion, to refund or replace goods damaged during shipment in accordance with Section II(b) of these Terms.

24

Tax. Sales tax will be applied to all Orders as applicable. Seller makes no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to deliver or import any wines, alcoholic beverages or other goods into any state. Because title passes from Zachys to Buyer in the state of New York (see Passage of Title and Storage; Title and Risk of Loss), all sales are subject to New York sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the Buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the Buyer.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Currency of fulfillment and applicable fees are determined by the origin of the shipment.
