The Sphinx Collection

A curated selection of fine and rare wines & spirits, alongside other remarkable discoveries.

On the heels of an amazing, single-owner sale in New York last month, we're back with another outstanding collection of wines from another single owner as well as a cadre of other amazing collections!

The path to our showrunner is lined with several outstanding collections. We kick off with some excellent offerings of The Domaine and Screaming Eagle in Burgundian & Californian Classics (Lots 1-22), straight from a preeminent international collector. We then elegantly sashay into The Downeast Cellar (Lots 23-142): a large, perfectly stored and pristine collection of primarily Bordeaux and Californian wines, with elegant touches of other preeminent regions. Beyond, there are Treasures from a Venerable Merchant (Lots 159-208): a trove filled with fine Burgundy and Barolo from top producers. There's even a little bit of Chartreuse to round out the starters; all in all, a perfect way to whet your palate for what's to come!

Our headliner for the sale we've entitled The Sphinx Collection (Lots 290-1285); as you might guess from the lot count, it is a collection of breadth and depth we seldom see at auction, with huge swaths of fine and rare wines in bulk and in pristine condition. There is case after case of First-Growth Bordeaux, Grand Cru Burgundy, as well as massive selections of California's best. There are also other choice offerings from the Rhône, Champagne, Italy, and even Australia in this vast collection, so do not hesitate to get your bids in early!

We'll be livestreaming this sale on October 25th, so get in touch with bid@zachys.com if you need any assistance with your bids or have any inquiries.

Zachys has had the privilege of offering some truly incredible collections this Fall, and it's not too late to get yours in before the end of the year! You can reach out to us at consignments@zachys.com and my colleagues and I will handle the rest for you.

Cheers,

The Downeast Cellar

LOTS 23-142

Our first look inside had our team breathless. Inside an unassuming room in a basement was a wine cellar filled to the brim with neatly stacked, full wooden cases and fully stocked wraparound racks all nesting quietly under constant temperature and humidity control!

We've since entitled that cellar The Downeast Cellar and it is collection that stands as a testament to decades of collecting, passionate stewardship, and of course, good taste. It is a collection filled with some of the finest examples of both the Old and New World wine, with names like Petrus, Lafite, and Margaux standing alongside Harlan, Opus One, and Dominus, just to name a few. While Bordeaux and California-heavy, the cellar contains choice selections of Burgundy, Rhône, and Tuscany too, resulting in a well-rounded treasure trove of wine. Included are back vintages ready to drink now, as well as some of the latest vintages perfect for your own cellar building.

Our gentleman collector also kept diligent records. The receipts you see dotted across these pages are a mere fraction of the paperwork our friend shared with us: everything from handwritten receipts from the beginning of the collection to printouts of sales orders from the latest vintages. Everything here was acquired via mailing list allocations or through reputable retailers down east along the coast, Zachys included. If you're curious about the provenance of any lot in the collection, just ask!

The wines were only removed from the cellar for this sale and are in uniformly excellent condition, hence the lack of notes for these lots. Our consignor and Zachys both encourage you to bid with confidence.

Château Haut-Brion

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10, 1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumel in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

Vineyards, Winemaking and the Delmas Family

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

Château Montrose

Château Montrose is a relatively recent estate compared with its neighbors, but in a very short time rose from woodland to second growth status in the 1855 classification. Since 1945 Montrose has been a star performer and while at times it has been undervalued in the marketplace, today that finally is changing.

History

In 1778 some unused woodland belonging to the Ségur family was sold off and purchased, along with Calon Ségur, by the Dumoulin family. In the early 1800s they began to plant vines, and by 1832 vineyards covered over thirty hectares. Around this time, a small chateau-type building was built and the wine first appeared under the name of Montrose (a name of unknown origin). Though a very young estate, it gained second growth status in 1855, by which time there were almost fifty hectares under vine. It passed to the Charmolue family in 1896, and remains under their ownership.

The Wine

While Montrose was sixty-five hectares in size by the 1890s, unlike many of its peers it has barely grown at all since then and is currently around the sixty-eight hectares mark. The vineyards are planted with sixty-five percent Cabernet Sauvignon, twenty-five percent Merlot and ten percent Cabernet Franc, with annual production of around 25000 cases. Château Montrose is known as a very consistent performer, especially in lesser years when many of its neighbors struggle.

Dominus

After mastering wine production at two of the most esteemed wineries in Bordeaux, Petrus and Château Trotancy, owner Christian Moueix looked toward Napa Valley to create one of tomorrow's classics in California. In 1982 in partnership with Robin Lail and Marcia Smith, Christian founded Dominus, a proprietary red wine produced in the heart of Napa Valley solely from the historic Napanook vineyard first planted in 1836. With the true understanding of terroir, the soil and climate of the Napanook vineyard at the foot of the Mayacamus Mountains was ideal for Cabernet Sauvignon and this is the base of the blend. The assemblage changes each year with varying degrees of Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot used to retain the consistent structure and complexity of the wine while reflecting the uniqueness of each vintage. A series of artists' portraits of Christian Moueix adorn the labels of the first vintages from the Estate (1983-1990) and then beginning with the 1991 vintage a classic Bordeaux styled label replaced the artist series.

The wines are made from grapes grown solely on the Napanook vineyard, allowing them to have a specific identity. They are "estate bottled" in the spirit of the Bordeaux chateaux and from the time of inception have characterized the expression of terroir in their earthy rusticity and complex character. Dominus exemplifies California production in a classic Bordeaux style.

Harlan Estate

Harlan Estate, owned by Bill Harlan, is a luxury, world-class, Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine produced from a steep, terraced vineyard on the western side of Napa Valley, high above Napa's famous Martha's Vineyard. Approximately twenty-four acres are in vine and the yields to date have been very low. Bill Harlan, better-known as one of the principals of Merryvale Vineyards...has only one objective: to produce one of the greatest red wines of California.

The wines are a blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the remainder Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bob Levy, Merryvale's winemaker and Michel Rolland, the well-known Bordeaux oenologist, are the architects behind these exceptional efforts. Stylistically the wines are the Napa Valley equivalent of a hypothetical La Mission Haut-Brion/Cheval Blanc blend. They are rich, powerful wines with unmistakable elegance, complexity, and purity.

A Venerable Merchant

LOTS 159-208

This collection comes from a UK merchant, small in size but very picky on quality as the selection of producers will tell you.

DRC, Leroy, Rousseau and the finest producers out of Italy such as Giacomo Conterno, Sassicaia, and Quintarelli; almost all bought direct from the producers or other UK merchants.

What's not direct was purchased from UK collectors, who in many cases share the same storage facility.

These were all kept in one of UKs most highly regarded wine storage facilities so bid with confidence.

Giacomo Conterno

Cantine Giacomo Conterno has stood at the pinnacle of "traditionalist camp of Barolo" for many, many decades, and along with the wines of other Piemonte icons such as Bartolo Mascarello, Mauro Mascarello and Bruno Giacosa, the wines of Cantine Giacomo Conterno have set the standard for excellence in the region for many years. The founder of the estate as it stands today was Giacomo Conterno, who began his own winery in the village of Monforte d'Alba in 1920, and quickly earned a reputation for excellence for the quality of his Barolo. However, the Conterno family's involvement in wine production in Barolo far predates the launching of today's winery in 1920, as the family retains documentation of their wine production ties that dates back to 1770. And in fact, Giacomo Conterno's father was very much involved in winemaking and wine sales from the moment he began his businesses in the region at the beginning of the twentieth century. The flagship Barolo bottling here is the bodega's Monfortino Riserva Speciale, which was first made in the 1920 vintage, and which is unequivocally one of Piemonte's longest-lived and greatest wines.

In many respects, modern Barolo as a long-lived and cellar-worthy wine owes much of its heritage to the visionary efforts of Giacomo Conterno throughout the decades of the 1920s, 1930s and 1940s. It is rather hard to imagine the landscape of Barolo as it is today without his pioneering efforts.

Biondi Santi

Jacopo Biondi Santi, the last generation of the family that invented Brunello, bought the Castello di Montepo, situated in Maremma district, in the 1990s. His aim was to pursue a very personal project: producing wines that are closer to the needs of the market, but without coming into conflict with tradition. The composition of the soil types, the range of microclimates, and the proximity of the sea make the estate suited for producing very high-level wines, which fully express the great winemaking potential of the Maremma district.

Emmanuel Rouget

Emmanuel began working with his uncle Henri (that's Henri Mayer of course) in the early 1980s. From 1985 he began releasing wines under his own label. He worked closely with his Henri Mayer until his passing and today has taken over much of the Henri Mayer portfolio including making the wines for Henri's brother, George.

Rouget follows pretty closely the methods used by his late uncle, these include; two sortings of grapes (one in the vineyard and one in the cellars), cold pre-fermentation, 100 percent new oak and of course incredible attention to detail from vineyard to bottle.

Domaine Dujac

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

FINE & RARE CHARTREUSE (LOTS 287 & 288)

The elixir of long-life returns! These two fine examples come from a New England collector who has decided to part with them after many years quietly cellaring them.

Chartreuse: The elixir of long life holds a unique place both in the market, and in the cellars of connoisseurs. It's a beverage so unique, so steeped in history and shrouded in mystique, that it excites the heart, the brain, and the palate like few other drinks. It is rare, especially the older bottles and large formats, and despite the fact that it's a 400-year old beverage, it remains artisanal—the recipe is a secret and supposedly known by only two monks.

Today, there are five main kinds of Chartreuse. The Elixir Végétal, which is made from the original recipe, is highly concentrated (69% alcohol) and sold in small bottles. Green Chartreuse, with its bewitching natural green color, is made from 130 different plants (the precise recipe is known by only two monks at a time). Yellow Chartreuse is sweeter than green, and was introduced to the market in 1840. V.E.P. (Vieillessement Exceptionnellement Prolongé, or "exceptionally prolonged ageing") Yellow and Green are the same as the regular Green and Yellow except, as the name suggests, aged for an extra-long time in oak.

The Sphinx Collection

A treasure trove of iconic pieces weave their own larger-than-life legends.

Through the lens of sweeping myths and rich cultures, the vision of the sphinx dances across the tapestry of art and time. Stone relics guard the thresholds of ancient temples and gilded palaces- depicting the regal lion body, the folded eagle wings, and the crowning human head of intellect. The sphinx is more than an awe-inspiring creature ready to spring into action- it is the embodiment of the otherworldly- the inspired fusion of remarkable pieces to create one immortal legend.

Much like the mythical Sphinx, this collection boasts its own compilation of noble pieces. A body featuring Romanée-Conti (lots 548-551). Wings of Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon (lots 1152-1170). A heady rush of lots brimming with Petrus (lots 382-408)-scores and scores of choice vintages-top it off. The impeccable condition of the bottles and the vast and jewel-littered bounty build mystic and grandeur right before your eyes.

What other riches does this Sphinx guard? It cocks its head in a knowing omnipotent gesture, beckoning you closer while luxuriating in its royalty. Can you glimpse the glint and glimmer of Harlan Estate (lots 915-928)? Large formats of Masseto (lots 706-708) and a Scarecrow (lots 1137-1142), act as Corinthian pillars holding up the gilded ceiling; a ceiling constantly rising with appreciation. Beneath the paws of the magnificent creature spills a flood of DRC assortment packs (lots 577-580) peppered with rare and blinding gems of Seloisse 2008 (lot 683), Mouton 2000 (lot 381, and 2019 Haut-Brion Blanc (lots 497-498). The eyes are pulled in too many directions, the mind lagging to comprehend the magnitude. The room hushes as the Sphinx raises its imposing head to pose its riddle- drawing in each fortune seeker further into its haunting and opulent sphere. The bidding paddles rise to claim their own place in the mythology of the Sphinx.

The vetted provenance of the “Sphinx Collection” are reflected in the bottles untouched condition. They’ve been closely guarded after all. The wines offered here were mailing-list-direct or procured through close ties to the trade right upon release. The wines were then stored professionally as well as in the consignor’s cutting-edge cellar. The quality of these wines speak to their guardian’s dedication to care and appraising eye.

This October 25th the riddles of old turn rhetorical as the Sphinx stares deeply into Auctions past, present, and future uttering a simple question: “will your bid bring you the fortune you seek?”

BORDEAUX

Château Ausone

History

Ausone is named for Ausonius, a fourth century poet and later Consul to Rome who lived in the area, although no proof exists that the current Ausone holdings and Ausonius were connected. What is known is that he owned vineyards in or near Bordeaux, and that since Roman times wine has been made in and around St Emilion.

From the early eighteenth century Ausone was owned by the Cantenat family, eventually passing to a nephew, M. Lafargue. Lafargue is credited with building Ausone's reputation at the time; during his tenure it was considered the finest producer in all of St Emilion. In the early 1890s it passed to Lafargue's niece, Madame Challon, who later married Edouard Dubois. Edouard Dubois-Challon continued the work of Lafargue and by the time of the First World War Ausone was considered the wine of the commune, even greater than Cheval Blanc. This success and reputation enabled Dubois-Challon to acquire neighboring Château Belair in 1916. Alain Vauthier, the current proprietor, is a descendant of the family.

Vineyards & Winemaking

For a long time Ausone had a reputation as an erratic performer, but more recently has begun to achieve its potential consistently. In 1989 Clive Coates wrote presciently in Grand Vins, "I dare say it will not be long before Ausone fetches the same prices as Petrus."

There are two main areas of vineyards in St Emilion, the valley and the slopes. Ausone is in a prime spot on the slopes, a steep plot of 7.3 hectares on a mixture of clay soil and some sandy gravel with a limestone base and subsoil. It is planted with almost fifty percent each of Merlot and Cabernet Franc, plus a few Cabernet Sauvignon vines. Like many of the châteaux on the St Emilion slopes, Ausone's cellars are dug right into the side of the hill. In fact, so much of the hill has been excavated that a couple of years ago a whole acre of the Belair vineyard collapsed.

The wines have a three to four week maceration following fermentation before going into 100 percent new oak barrels for malolactic fermentation and around eighteen to twenty-four months of maturation. The annual production of 2000 cases is then fined with egg whites and bottled without filtration.

"The 2018 Ausone is off the charts. Deep, sensual and mysterious, the 2018 is going to need many years to show the full breadth of its potential. And yet, there is so much there. Château Cheval Blanc

Cheval Blanc has a relatively short history compared with the other top-rank châteaux of Bordeaux. As recently as the 1830s it was still a part of Figeac. A portion of that estate was sold to the Ducasse family, then owners of L'Évangile, and by twenty years later, when a Ducasse married a Fourcard-Loussac, the property was already some thirty-one hectares in size. The estate remained with the Fourcard-Loussac family until part of it was sold to Bernard Arnault and his company, LVMH, in 1998. Today, along with Château d'Yquem, it is fully owned by Arnault and managed by the dynamic Pierre Lurton.

Cheval Blanc, across the road from Pomerol, has distinctive soil makeup: about twenty percent sand, forty percent clay and forty percent gravel. In the gravelly and sandy areas the roots have to work hard to stay alive and often reach depths of seven to eight meters, compared with two to three meters in the clay areas.

Today the roughly thirty-seven hectares of vineyards are planted with sixty percent Cabernet Franc and forty percent Merlot. Yields are typically thirty-five hl/ha, and the annual production of 6500 to 7000 cases is bottled after eighteen to twenty-four months in new oak.

"The 2018 Cheval Blanc is dazzling. Creamy, supple and inviting, the 2018 is endowed with phenomenal balance. The tannins and overall structure are imposing, and yet the richness of the fruit and perfect ripeness of the tannin really stand out. In 2018, Cheval is a bit richer than is often the case, but that is not at all a bad thing. I am struck by how much freshness and energy the 2018 has. Hints of lavender, spice and licorice add shades of nuance, but it is the wine's overall sense of harmony that leaves the strongest impression. A precise counterpoint of fruit richness and finesse makes for a truly unforgettable Cheval Blanc...97-100." VM 4/19.

Château Lafite Rothschild

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The Château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

Château Mouton Rothschild

Mouton, like much of Pauillac in the sixteenth century, was part of the sprawling Ségur estate. In the mid-eighteenth century the land that is now Mouton Rothschild was acquired by Baron de Brane, who changed the name to Brane-Mouton. Brane sold it in 1830 to an M Thuret; while it was already a notable Château, first appearing in a Christie's catalog in 1834, Thuret did not make maintenance of the Château a priority and resold it in 1853. The purchaser was Baron Nathaniel de Rothschild, at the time head of the English arm of the wealthy Rothschild family.

While Mouton was always a highly regarded wine, a big change came when in 1922, when the twenty-one-year-old Baron Philippe decided to run the Château full-time. An innovator from the start of his tenure, in 1924 he decided that in order to guarantee quality the entire production would be bottled at the Château, and from 1934 he numbered each bottle released. Also, of course, he started the tradition of works of art on Mouton labels, featuring the famous Carlu ram's head from 1924 to 1926, and since a hiatus from then until 1945, each label has either been designed by a major artist or featured a tribute to a significant event in the Château's history.

Perhaps his most significant achievement was persuading the French Minister for Agriculture, Jacques Chirac, that Mouton was and had always been a First Growth that had been wrongly classified. So, in 1973, for the first and only time, a revised edition of the 1855 classification was released with Mouton finally ranked, next to its Pauillac neighbors Lafite and Latour, as a First Growth.

Petrus

Petrus today is a little over eleven hectares, including five hectares purchased in 1969 from neighboring Château Gazin. The vineyards have clay topsoil and gravelly subsoil, allowing good initial water retention but excellent longer term drainage. The vines are old, around forty to fifty years, planted with ninety percent Merlot and five percent Cabernet Franc. To increase concentration the vines are pruned extensively and a green harvest is performed. At harvest time, nearly two hundred workers pick the grapes at their peak of balance and ripeness. Sometimes up to four passes are needed but if pressed, as in 1982, the entire harvest can be completed in just one day.

The grapes are partially destemmed and after a fairly lengthy maceration period, sometimes almost a month, the wine spends twenty months in new oak before being fined (but not filtered) and bottled. Petrus is a classic example of careful vineyard management and winemaking yet the result leaves evidence of something even greater. These methods combine with exquisite terroir for Merlot to create something that is, in good vintages, not only earth-shatteringly tasty, but distinctive, lending the name Petrus majesty because of its quality but also its inimitability.

Château Cos d'Estournel

Château Cos d'Estournel is regarded by many as the finest wine within the northern commune of Saint Estèphe and is certainly an aesthete's delight. Driving past the stately Château Lafite Rothschild with its manicured gardens and willow-trees billowing in the wind, you enter a rollercoaster dip which ascends towards a building that appears to have been designed on LSD with its Chinese pagodas and menagerie of creatures: lions, elephants and unicorns sculpted in sandstone that radiates at sunset. Even the large main door is ornately carved with exotic flora and fauna. What is surprising is that this is not even a place of residence: but simply one of the most outrageously decadent chais in the world.

History

The history of Château Cos d'Estournel is one of the most colourful in Bordeaux and is associated with iconic figures of the nineteenth century.

The word "Cos" derives from Gascogne tongue, meaning "hill of pebbles" whilst its appendage is down to Louis-Gaspard d'Estournel who was born in 1753 and lived to the ripe old age of ninety-one, passing away just two years before his beloved estate was classified as a Second Growth, along with Château Montrose. Louis Gaspard had a penchant for acquiring land, inheriting his first parcel at the tender age of twenty-nine and having acquired a parcel of vines near the village of Cos, he recognized that the terroir was similar to that of Lafite and immediately resolved to create a wine of equal stature. Between 1821 and 1857 he expanded the vineyard piecemeal from twelve to fifty-seven hectares including the best parcel of vines from the neighbouring Château Cos Labory, eventually owning the whole hill.

Château Cos d'Estournel 2018

*St Estèphe, Deuxième Cru Classé
two 6-pack original wood cases*

"A regal, soaring Saint-Estèphe, the 2018 Cos d'Estournel is also clearly one of the wines of the vintage. On the palate, the 2018 is dark and sumptuous, with striking aromatic presence and silky tannins that wrap around a rich core of exotic fruit. Black cherry, savory herbs, leather, spice and menthol build in the glass in a wine that is both aromatically intense and richly textured. The 2018 has been nothing short of breathtaking on the two occasions I have tasted it so far. Don't miss it...97-100." AG 4/19.

Château La Mission Haut-Brion

Although the histories of Château Haut-Brion and La Mission are entwined, both have always been separate entities, sharing a common family name. It is only since 1983 that they have shared the same proprietor when it was taken over by the owners of Haut-Brion...

On November 2nd 1983, the present owners acquired La Mission after the owner Francis Dewavrin was unable to resolve internal family disputes over the way the property was managed and it marks a convergence of histories between Château Haut-Brion and La Mission, though only in the sense that they share the same owner: Clarence Dillon. He enlisted Jean-Bernard Delmas as Château-manager and there followed a period that has consolidated La Mission's position as one of the greatest estates, hovering just outside the First Growths.

Their commitment to innovation and improvements has been a catalyst for many estates in the Graves region to improve their wines, particularly with respect of clonal selection research. In 1987 the old chai was renovated, a new state-of-the-art cuvier was installed and a new bottling line was implemented in 1996. It must be emphasized that the estates are treated as separate entities, even though at some point the vines of both run side-by-side. In 2003 Jean-Bernard retired and handed the reins over to his son, Jean-Philippe Delmas.

The Wines

Certainly since the arrival of Jean-Bernard Delmas the style of wine has improved: the wine is more pure and the volatile acidity has been eradicated. At its best (the 1966, 1975, 1998) La Mission is a massive, tannic behemoth that has more in common with Château Latour than Château Haut-Brion. It is a powerful, sturdy wine with firm tannins and admirable longevity...

This is definitely one of the most intriguing wines in Bordeaux: the appeal of La Mission is that it seems to avoid the vagaries of wine-making trends and wears its heart on its sleeve. This is a classic wine in every sense of the word and it can make a seamless match with food. A poor La Mission is still a better wine than most; a good La Mission is a great wine and a great La Mission can be a religious experience. I have met few wine-critics who do not hold this estate in high esteem: it is a wine for true wine-lovers.

Le Pin

The vineyard has humble beginnings. Mme. Loubie owned the land from 1924 until her passing in March 1979 and during this time the wine was sold as generic Pomerol. When Jacques Thienpont purchased the meager 1.6-hectares parcel for one million francs, he named his wine Le Pin, after a solitary pine tree that shaded the property. His cousin, Alexandre Thienpont once told me that Jacques contemplated absorbing the tiny parcel into Vieux Château Certan in order to supplement the production, but had a change of heart once it was his possession, after all quality was already improving at Vieux Château Certan.

Throughout the 1980s and early 1990s the wine became an icon of modern Bordeaux. Le Pin was soon challenging the supremacy of Petrus not only in terms of price, but in terms of quality. Its scarcity, memorable name, its understated label, charismatic proprietor and most importantly quality, provided the rocket fuel for its meteoric rise into the elite in a handful of years. The present encepagement is 92% Merlot with just 8% Cabernet Franc although the final blend is usually 100% Merlot, similar to Château Petrus.

Château Léoville Las Cases

The château gets its name from the Marquis de Las-Cases Beauvoise who, upon the dividing up of the vast Léoville estate, ended with the largest portion. Hugh Barton bought a quarter, Baron Poyferré (a relative) ended up with another quarter, and the remaining half went to the Marquis.

As debt accumulated during the earlier part of the twentieth century, the estate was gradually acquired by its then manager, Theophile Skavinski. Jean-Hubert Delon, the estate's present owner, is one of his descendents.

The Wine

Although there are nearly 100 hectares under vine here, it is the fifty-three hectares of Grand Clos with that famous wall and arched entrance that is the primary source of fruit for the grand vin. The vines are planted to seventy percent Cabernet Sauvignon, seventeen percent Merlot and thirteen percent Cabernet Franc. Ageing is in sixty-five percent new oak barriques for fifteen to eighteen months, which just goes to show you don't need three and a half years in 100 percent new oak to make great wine. The second wine, Clos du Marquis, was one of Bordeaux' first when the 1902 vintage debuted.

These are serious wines, as good as any in the Médoc and in many years outperforming its second growth status. This estate could be called "the Latour of St Julien," which is actually not very far from the truth as it does reside right next door to the First Growth!

Château d'Yquem

Château d'Yquem is the apex qualitatively and the centre geographically of the Sauternes area. Each major property occupies its own little hill. Yquem's is the highest. It is also the largest estate, the most perfectionistic, the most consistent. Unlike the rest of the region there was no cutting of corners, no lack of investment, no dip in quality in the sad days of the 1960s and 1970s.

At Yquem we have Sauternes winemaking at its most perfectionistic. The vines are pruned to yield nine hl/ha – one glass per vine (as opposed to a full bottle in a classified growth red wine château). Collection of the grapes is berry by botrytised berry, rather than by bunch or half-bunch elsewhere. The grapes are crushed in a small horizontal hydraulic press in three stages. Unlike in Champagne, for example, the first pressing does not necessarily give the best wine. There is no débouillage before the wine is put into cask. Fermentation and ageing is in new oak, of course, the latter taking place in a splendid underground cellar, constructed in 1987. The assemblage is late and the wine is not bottled for three years or more. Only then is it put on the market...

There is something very special, and indeed very consistent, about Yquem. The wine is more oaky than most in its youth. It is by quite some way the richest, most concentrated, most intense wine of its kind. In great years – I have a marginal preference for 1989 over 1990 and 1988 – it is nectar: the liquid quintessence of concentrated sunbeams, to quote Thomas Love Peacock.

BURGUNDY

Armand Rousseau

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets...impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

Louis Jadot

The Jadot story started with a family purchase in the Beaune Clos des Ursules vineyard in 1826. Then, in 1859 they started formally as a negociant house and have continued a family tradition of winemaking to this very day. The focus here is on two things: quality and tradition. These are wines of terroir made in a time honored fashion.

Chapoutier

Although the firm was established in 1808, it was not until the young Michel Chapoutier, mentored by Marcel Guigal and Gerard Chave, took over in 1988 that the house began to make world-class wine. With nearly 200 hectares of vines and over twenty different releases each year, his ability to produce so many great wines is extraordinary. Besides the estate releases, Chapoutier has a negociant business and a sizeable and expanding portfolio of wines from southern France. Michel is a big advocate of biodynamic viticulture, and with his brother Marc handling the business and marketing, the estate has a very fine future.

The fattest, most exuberant cuvee, with off the charts concentration and density (almost overbearing in its intensity, but the acids are there), is the 2007 Ermitage Le Méal blanc. An extraordinary expression of a single vineyard white Hermitage, this is an elixir with shocking levels of concentration. Salon

With its first vintage in 1905, Champagne Salon began its tradition of extreme attention to terroir, quality, and precision. The unique vineyard Le Mesnil-Sur-Oger, where the grapes are sourced, is nestled in the heart of the Côte des Blancs – the home of Chardonnay in Champagne. Made with 100% Grand Cru Chardonnay only in the best years, the wines are celled in bottle for an average of ten years before release. Simply put, this is a grand vin...with bubbles.

Selosse

Anselme Selosse's parents first made wine in 1964. Ten years later, it was Anselme's turn. From 1996, the vineyards are biodynamic. But in 2002, Anselme distanced himself from biodynamics, not wanting to influence nature in anyway. The practices of Masanobu Fukuoka and permaculture were foremost in his wine, and he began to only pay attention to the vines. For the last twenty years, the Selosse family has developed its own system of viticulture which is an approach that follows no set method, but rather permanently adapts itself to the circumstances confronted throughout the growing season in the various vineyard plots.

As the time draws near to pass the torche at Domaine Jacques Selosse, Anselme and Corinne's son, Guillaume, has, since 2012, been preparing to follow in his father's footsteps. During the time spent working side by side with his father, he has naturally been developing his own viticultural skills and inclinations which will most certainly lend a unique identity to the wines in the future. Over the years, Selosse has become the most sought after Champagne in the auction market.

Gaja

In the mid-nineteenth century the Gaja family began producing wine in Piedmont. Giovanni Gaja established the winery and Angelo, the fourth generation, joined the family firm in 1961. Angelo Gaja, born in 1940 and the present director of the family firm, has a degree in enology from Alba as well as a masters in economics. In 1974 he went to California, where he presumably fell under the spell of the barrique. Gaja has achieved unequivocal success aging his Barbarescos in small, new oak barrels, where the wine takes on a certain subtlety and suppleness without losing the personality of the Nebbiolo grape.

Gaja is the largest private owner of vineyards in the Barbaresco zone, with 153 acres of vines in Barbaresco, Treiso, and Alba. They own fourteen different vineyards in Barbaresco and Treiso that make up their Barbaresco normale. Besides this regular Barbaresco, Gaja bottles three individual crus. Of the three, Costa Russi matures the soonest. It is the most open, with a sweeter taste and more intense aroma. Sori Tildin is more closed and concentrated; it is firm in texture and holds more in reserve. Sori San Lorenzo is the hardest of all in its youth, requiring age to show its real quality. It is the slowest maturing of the crus as well as the longest lived.

Wasserman, "Italy's Noble Red Wines"

Masseto is the famous 100% Merlot IGT...and is regarded as one of the best expressions of Merlot in the world. The Merlot vines are cultivated in alluvial, sandy-clayey soils that are rich in minerals. The same care and attention is paid in the vineyard as Ornellaia, with meticulous vineyard husbandry and rigorous sorting.

However the vinification is slightly different, with alcoholic fermentation carried out in wooden vats rather than stainless-steel, ranging in size from 65hl to 125hl. The wine is racked and then transferred into oak barriques where it remains for 24 months, with blending at 12 months.

Pingus

Pingus is a very new and hugely successful winery in Ribera del Duero. Run by a young, Danish born renowned winemaker, Peter Sisseck, the winery has produced astonishing results (and prices) in a very short period of time. Located in a winery said by John Radford, Spanish wine expert, to resemble a pink flying saucer, Pingus is part of an elite club of top Spanish wine producers. Yields are incredibly low, the wines are extremely concentrated, allocation is miniscule. Crianza and Reserva wines are made from ancient, gnarled Tempranillo vines. Sisseck is said to be a genius in the vineyard, where pruning has become an art form.

Vega Sicilia

Vega Sicilia, often called "the Lafite of Spain" for its elegance, is among the oldest extant wineries in Spain and remains among its most celebrated. Toribio Lecanda purchased 2,000 acres of farmland from the Marquis de Valbuena in 1848, but it was not until 1864 that his son, Eloy, began to convert it to viticulture by planting Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Pinot Noir. Originally, he made brandy, and even before it was a winery Vega Sicilia was appointed to be the brandy supplier to the royal family of Spain. Vega Sicilia Único ("unique") and Valbuena both date from 1915, when the vineyards had recovered sufficiently from phylloxera to permit great wine to be made. Único, made only in outstanding years, is typically mostly Tempranillo, with the balance Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Merlot. It spends at least seven years in barrel, and at least three in bottle, before release, and in some vintages, it is aged for astonishingly long periods before it reaches the market. The 1970, for example, was not released until 1995, and magnums did not follow until 2000!

The wine lives up to its designation as "unique." It is intensely fragrant, complex on the palate but also extremely concentrated, with very high acidity to balance the richness. Occasionally, the winery will release a small quantity of wine designated "Reserva Especial," a blend of two or three Únicos; these bottlings are generally considered to be of the same high quality as the single vintage releases.

Bond

As one can see, the approach here is akin to that of Burgundy. Bond Estate is all about identifying small special plots of land and making the best wine possible from each, thereby showcasing the individuality and terroir. At Bond, there is a fine array of very diverse climates and soils, and it is very interesting to taste these wines side by side to see just what a difference soils and situation make.

As age worthy as any of Napa's greatest Cabernets, these are super serious wines and will give great pleasure over the years and decades to come.

Colgin

Colgin Cellars was founded in 1992 by Ann Barry Colgin, an expert on fine art whose exposure to fine wine through that rarified world spurred her to create her own world-class wines. With vineyard management by David Abreu and winemaking by Helen Turley, the wine was immediately recognized as a new superstar in Napa, with the debut vintage scored 96 points by Robert Parker. Since then, he has awarded a perfect score of 100 points to three Colgin wines.

Colgin's reputation was originally founded on their Herb Lamb Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon, made from 1992 to 2007. While that is no longer in the portfolio, Colgin today produces wines from two estate-owned sites and from vineyards owned and managed by Napa legend David Abreu. Two estate-grown single-varietal wines are produced, a Cabernet Sauvignon from the Tychson Hill Vineyard and a Syrah from the IX Vineyard. The other two wines in the portfolio are Bordeaux blends, the estate-grown IX Vineyard Red and Cariad, from Abreu's vineyards.

Proprietor Jayson Woodbridge makes some of the most unique, deeply personal wines in Napa Valley. Very late harvests and minimal intervention in the cellar, including no rackings until bottling, are just some of the choices that inform these wines. Woodbridge's vineyards are in St Helena (Kayli Morgan), the lower part of Howell Mountain (Ark) and Calistoga (Few and Far Between). Woodbridge is less reliant on outside consultants than many of his colleagues, so the wines bear very specific signatures that are unlike those of other wines being made in the Valley. The late harvests give the wines super-ripe fruit that can at times veer towards sweetness, but it is the extreme silkiness and finesse of the tannins that differentiates these wines. Woodbridge believes wines must be ready to go upon release and frowns upon decanting or advance aeration, which he doesn't think should be necessary. As outstanding as these wines can be upon release, the reality is that the wines have also proven to age exceptionally well.

Marcassin Vineyard

The story behind these and the rest of the remarkable Marcassin wines began in the 1980s...At the time, Turley and Wetlaufer were two Burgundy lovers residing in Napa Valley who knew that they wanted to focus on Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Early on, a friend suggested a long shot -- if you want to make great Pinot Noir, try the Sonoma Coast. "We knew it was a wonderful site," says Wetlaufer, now fifty four, recalling the first time he and Turley (also fifty-four) laid eyes on what is now their Marcassin Vineyard. Appropriately enough, the vineyard's name means "young wild boar" in French...

In the end they decided to follow their hearts, and in 1986 they borrowed $65,000 from Wetlaufer's mother to buy forty acres on a rugged ridge about ten miles north of the mouth of the Russian River. In 1987 they began to prepare the steep, rocky, southeast facing slope's soil for planting. In 1991 they planted the first of what today are fourteen acres of grapevines, with a 50-50 mix of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. The vineyard sits at an altitude of 1,100 feet...

Turley has had striking across-the-board success with different wines from different vineyards. Her work ranges from the plush, enormously rich Bryant Family and Colgin Cabernets to the immense Turley Zinfandels to the elegant, concentrated Landmark Chardonnays. The fact that bottlings from each of these wineries are now considered among California's elite is testimony to her talents as a winemaker.

Her winemaking philosophy is simple but strict: Find great vineyards, farm them precisely, limit crops, make sure the grapes ripen fully (even if it leads to higher sugar levels than many winemakers prefer) and ferment using natural yeasts. "What you have," says Turley, "are grapes from different vineyards, all made the same way, by the same winemaker, using the same techniques, the same barrels. If they taste different, the taste is terroir."

Size is also essential to the Marcassin formula. "We knew we wanted to be small -- that allows us to have total control," she says. The perfect size, she says, is 100 barrels, enough for 2,500 cases. Eventually, the fourteen acres of Marcassin grapes will produce forty tons of grapes -- roughly 2,500 cases. For the time being, Marcassin's wines are made at the Martinelli winery in Russian River Valley. In the near future, Turley and Wetlaufer hope to add another five acres of vines, along with a winery...

Opus One

Opus One was founded in the 1970s as a joint venture between Robert Mondavi and Baron Philippe de Rothschild (of Château Mouton Rothschild). A blend of two wine-making cultures as well as two of the most influential figures in the wine world, Opus One is modeled after a Bordeaux château but set in Napa Valley. Its inaugural vintage was produced at the Robert Mondavi Winery in 1979 and was unveiled alongside the 1980 vintage as the winery's first release. With this initial offering to the market in 1984, Opus One established itself as America's first ultra-premium wine and created a new category of American wine priced $50 and above per bottle. In the 1980s and 1990s Opus One went on to become one of the elite producers of Cabernet -- while the label does not identify a varietal, the wine is mostly Cabernet Sauvignon with some Cabernet Franc. Since its founding, Opus has added vineyard land in Oakville and now owns nearly 140 acres of vines, including some in the prized To-Kalon vineyard. Notable not only for its pedigreed lineage, Opus is also recognized for its monumental winery that some consider a tribute to its founders. Today Opus One is overseen by Baroness Philippine de Rothschild and produces approximately 25,000 cases a year.

Realm Cellars boasts an impressive team of highly motivated men and women led by Juan Mercado and winemaker Benoit Touquette. The consulting winemaker is Michel Rolland. Realm accesses some outstanding vineyard sources, particularly those owned by the omnipresent, bigger-than-life force of Napa Valley, Andy Beckstoffer. Fate was not kind to Realm in the beginning with their first vintage, 2003, completely destroyed by a fire in a Vallejo warehouse where it was being stored. But Juan Mercado, a former medic in the first Gulf war, and someone who learned his trade from the likes of Thomas Rivers Brown, Michel Rolland, John Kongsgaard and Les Behrens, stuck with it, and is now producing incredible wines. These 2012s represent the finest efforts Realm has produced to date. The heart of the Realm philosophy is to access some of Napa Valley's finest vineyards and put together either single-vineyard bottlings or creative proprietary blends. All of these 2012s were outrageously delicious, and I can't recommend them highly enough."

Scarecrow

The heart and soul of the Scarecrow cuvee dates back to the late nineteenth century. Born in 1895, J.J. Cohn rose from poverty in Harlem, New York to become the Chief of Production of MGM Studios in California. Cohn purchased a 180-acre estate in Rutherford in the Napa Valley as a retreat for his family. His estate bordered that of the legendary winemaker of Inglenook, Gustave Niebaum. In 1945, Niebaum convinced Cohn to plant eighty acres of Cabernet Sauvignon that he promised to purchase. This would become the base for the distinguished Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignons of the post-war era. It is important to note that these "Old Vines" that are now the hallmark of Scarecrow are still on their original rootstock planted in 1945, unlike most of the grafted rootstock found in Napa that was struck by phylloxera - possibly paying tribute to J.J. Cohn himself who lived to be 100 years old. Paying homage to his grandfather who during his time at MGM was instrumental in the making of film classics such as The Wizard of Oz, Bret Lopez honors J.J. Cohn with the wine that is Scarecrow.

Screaming Eagle

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

Vérité

When Jess Jackson brought Bordelais winemaker Pierre Seillan to California in 1998, he believed he had high enough quality vineyards to produce Bordeaux-quality wines with strikingly Californian personalities. He put Mr. Seillan in charge of three separate Vérité cuvees: La Muse, La Joie and Le Désir. La Muse is a Pomerol-styled wine largely based on Merlot blended primarily with Cabernet Franc and Malbec. La Joie was meant to be a Médoc-styled blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the balance Merlot and sometimes tiny percentages of Malbec, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. The third offering, Le Désir, was the St Emilion-styled wine, usually composed of about fifty percent Merlot and the rest lots of Cabernet Franc and a tiny amount of Cabernet Sauvignon. His foresight was realized when in a historic moment, wine critic Robert M. Parker, Jr., of The Wine Advocate recently announced seven 100-point scores for Vérité's three blends, Le Désir, La Joie and La Muse. This is the first time a Sonoma County winery has received this many perfect scores.

Penfolds Grange

Penfolds' first vineyard was established in 1844 at Magill, South Australia, by Dr. Christopher Rawson Penfold. For over 100 years, Penfolds, like most Australian wineries, produced mostly fortified wines and brandies. In 1950, Penfolds chief winemaker, Max Schubert, visited Europe, primarily to study sherry production in Spain. However, the last leg of the trip was a stop in Bordeaux where he was served forty plus year old examples of the great growths of the region. Being awed by the longevity of these unfortified reds, Shubert sought to produce a wine in Australia endowed with the same long-lived potential as the greats of Bordeaux.

The fulfillment of Shubert's goal became known as Penfolds Grange Hermitage (and after the 1989 vintage simply as Penfolds Grange). The 1955 vintage of Grange won a gold medal at the Sydney Wine Show in 1962, and since numerous vintages have won 126 gold, seventy-six silver and forty-two bronze medals, plus twenty-eight trophies and seven championship awards at various competitions in Australia and abroad.

Penfolds Grange is still produced with top quality materials and practices, affording at least a thirty to fifty year lifecycle in the best vintages. Penfolds has been produced every year since 1951, with good bottles from the 1950s and 1960s still affording exceptional drinking. Grange classically displays dazzling aromatics, deep color, and a striking youthfulness with a palate redolent of blackberries, plums, leather, cedar, cassis and smoke. A lovely silky texture is another hallmark of the Grange style. With a track record of unrivalled excellence spanning the last fifty plus vintages, Penfolds Grange has risen to be recognized as Australia's finest wine.

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (ii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iii) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 25% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot and is subject to change.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.5803.8244 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. Zachys requires a valid credit card for new registrants.

Prospective Buyers may be asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please prearrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971.

All bidders who wish to attend the auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at zachys.com. Complete and either email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com or fax the form to +1.914.713.8220 or +852.2530.1971 at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bids provided to Zachys prior to the first session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. All bids are final and will not be cancelled.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity, and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will attempt to move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

For live auctions, a maximum bid may be entered online. You must confirm the bid to submit it. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is entered that does not match a bidding increment, a message will be displayed to provide the increments that are closest to the bid entered. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at <https://auction.zachys.com/>. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above 16,000 HKD or 2,000 USD and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Timed Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of a timed auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. You must confirm the id to submit it. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is entered that does not match a bidding increment, a message will be displayed to provide the increments that are closest to the bid entered. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location. Because title passes from Zachys to Buyer in the state of New York (see Passage of Title and Storage), all sales are subject to New York sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the Buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the Buyer.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale.

All questions regarding tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034 or +852.2530.1971.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 25% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

Payment for all invoices is due immediately upon receipt.

For timed auction ("zCollections") purchases: Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for the full invoice amount within 48 hours of the sale close.

For live auction purchases: Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file within 48 hours of the sale close.

In respect of all other purchases, buyers are expected to pay for purchases or balances within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for internet sales. At the end of this 14 or 7 calendar-day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due.

Zachys reserves the right to cancel the sale of invoices still unpaid on the 31st day after an auction.

For US auctions, payment is accepted in United States Dollars.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in Hong Kong Dollars.

To request payment in another currency, contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate.

Payment by Credit Card

All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Union Pay. Payment can be made via phone by calling +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971.

Payments made by credit card will incur a 2% processing fee.

When making payment via UnionPay, winning bidder must sign the auction invoice and

Collection of Purchases

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Prospective Buyers' attention is drawn to the Conditions of Sale, including Condition 9.

Collection & Delivery

It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Unless Buyer is located in the state of New York, Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products to buyer. For Buyers located outside of the state of New York, Zachys will deliver all alcoholic beverages purchased to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer (see Passage of Title and Storage).

After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyer's expense, direction and request.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. Under no circumstances will substitutes be provided by Zachys; including but not limited to in case of breakage or error in catalog description. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

2 The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 25% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

3 Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

4 Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

5 In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

6 Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7 All alcoholic beverages purchased from Zachys are sold in the state of New York, and title passes to the buyer in the state of New York in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code. All sales are subject to NY sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the purchaser. If the Purchaser is a resident of a state other than New York, all alcoholic beverage purchases will be delivered to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer, who may arrange with the facility to pick up the inventory in person or arrange for delivery under the law of the purchaser's state or the ultimate destination of the goods.

8a Title to the offered lot, passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information. Title passes to Buyer in the state of New York, where the sale takes place.

8b The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

9 No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and on the seventh calendar day following the internet sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 90 calendar days after the date of sale. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 90 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

10 Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

12

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale, or to cancel the sale of any lot unpaid 31 calendar days after sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property or 90 days after the sale, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

For auctions that are held in New York, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

17

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

18

New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured, and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

22

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

23

Title and Risk of Loss. For New York residents, title and risk of loss to all goods shall pass to you upon our transfer of the products to the applicable carrier, or upon delivery to you if Zachys is acting as the carrier. For non-New York residents, title and risk of loss to all goods shall pass to you upon our delivery of the products to the independent storage facility, upon your receipt of the products from the Zachys premises, or upon transfer to an applicable carrier or third party in accordance with any alternative shipping/storage methods you decide. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Zachys reserves the right, exercisable in its sole discretion, to refund or replace goods damaged during shipment in accordance with Section II(b) of these Terms.

24

Tax. Sales tax will be applied to all Orders as applicable. Seller makes no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to deliver or import any wines, alcoholic beverages or other goods into any state. Because title passes from Zachys to Buyer in the state of New York (see Passage of Title and Storage; Title and Risk of Loss), all sales are subject to New York sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the Buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the Buyer.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

Collection, Delivery & Storage of Wine

Wines should be collected within 90 days after the auction at which they were purchased, after which time they will be automatically transferred to a storage account and incur storage fees.

For US Auctions

Passage of Title

All alcoholic beverages purchased from Zachys are sold in the state of New York, and title passes to the buyer in the state of New York in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code. All sales are subject to NY sales taxes unless the goods are delivered to the buyer in another jurisdiction under the authority of a permit issued by the recipient state and the collection of sales taxes by the state of the purchaser. If the Purchaser is a resident of a state other than New York, all alcoholic beverage purchases will be delivered to an independent New York storage facility for the account of the buyer, who may arrange with the facility to pick up the inventory in person or arrange for delivery under the law of the purchaser's state or the ultimate destination of the goods.

Storage

Wine purchased at auction is stored at New York Fine Wine Storage (NYFWS) located in Port Chester, New York. The 55,000 square foot warehouse is equipped with a state-of-the-art alarm system that is monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A refrigeration system provides an ideal temperature, and all wines are protected with a temperature alarm system, as well as a backup generator. Rates are competitive, and the merchandise will not have to be moved to another location.

For further information or directions, please call NYFWS at 914.874.8068.

Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments and pickups will be subject to a 1% Shipping Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance with respect to purchased property packed, shipped and delivered pursuant to arrangements made by Zachys. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival.

To insure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge.

Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, as to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverages into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the wine shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the wine to be shipped prior to the purchase of wines at auction. The protection afforded by the Shipping Protection Fee does not cover confiscation by any government or law enforcement agency as a result of alleged violations of applicable laws by Sellers or Buyers.

Zachys will take precaution to ensure the safety of wines against inclement weather conditions. This may include delaying shipments during times of extreme high or low temperatures.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Currency of fulfillment and applicable fees are determined by the origin of the shipment.

Zachys is not responsible for any acts or omissions of any shipper with whom Buyer, not Zachys, has made arrangements to pack, ship or deliver purchased lots, including, without limitation, any packing, shipping or delivery of purchased lots.
